Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain.

This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting.

This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Allay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves—not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloroform or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it never returns."—JOHN J. McGUIRE.

Price, 50 Cents per Bottle. Sold by Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, and a guarantee that this first package will relieve. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Jealous of Imaginary His.

"Talk of woman's jealousy of her husband," said a physician of long experience in New York. "It is nothing compared to her jealousy of another's chronic ailments. Half the doctors would starve if it were not for the prevalence of illness that are purely imaginary. Of course, it does not do for us to tell a woman who has firmly made up her mind that she is ill that she is not ill. In nine cases out of ten she would lose her temper and consult another doctor. Among certain women invalidism gives them a distinction which is gratifying to their self-love. They may literally be said to enjoy poor health. They look for the doctor's visit to them, or they call at his office, as the most exciting event of the day. If they know him well enough, they implore him to waive professional etiquette and tell them about ailments of other women who consult him. Women of this description—and they are legion—having a craving for martyrdom, which doctoring an imaginary illness seems to satisfy.

Wages of Laziness.

"Old Hiram Spruceby was the laziest man these parts ever seen," remarked the postmaster at Bacon Ridge.

"Was he so very lazy?" interrogated the soap drummer.

"Lazy! Why, do you believe it, when he wanted a chicken killed he would tie it out in the road and wait for an automobile to run over it. That's a fact, stranger. One day he wanted a bullock killed and he tied that out there, too."

"And I suppose a racing machine came tearing along and then there was fresh beef?"

"Nothing of the kind, stranger. When that thar bullock seen the racing machine coming he just lowered his head and tossed it clean over Hiram's barn. Now Hiram has four damage suits on hand and a new roof to put on his barn."

Breaking Up a Nevada Saloon.

They were exchanging the gossip of the mining camps of Nevada.

"Did you hear," said the fellow with the diamond scarfpin in his sweater, "how they did up Sullivan over in Kawich."

"Really?"

"Yep. Sullivan's saloon at Kawich is nothing but a bank at Goldfield? You haven't been over to Kawich, have you? It's forty-five miles out in the wilderness, and water, when there is any in camp, is worth its weight in radium. Well, a fellow went into Sullivan's the other day with seven friends, and just out of pure curiosity they all ordered water."

Talking Good for the Teeth.

Somebody has advanced a new theory to account for the rapid decay of the teeth of human kind. It is one, this wisecracker says, to the decline of conversational powers. Talk exercises the jaws, and jaws exercise is beneficial to the teeth. The more talk the more benefit. Our ancestors were forced to talk because there were few amusements to silence them. Their teeth were more shapely and stronger and they endured. Nowadays cheap entertainments of many kinds entice the teeth owners and cheap literature of an enervating character draws them from the natural exercise that their molars and incisors so sorely need.—(Boston Transcript.)

How to Enter.

Parties wishing to enter the printing office at this season of the year should be governed by the following rules: Advance to the inner door and give three distinct raps, or knock the door down. The "devil" will attend to your alarm. You will give him your name, postoffice address and the number of years you are owing to the paper. He will admit you. You will advance to the center of the room, address the editor with the following countersign: Extend the right hand about two feet from the body, with thumb and index finger clasping a ten dollar bill, which drops into the extended hand of the editor at the same time saying: "Were you looking for me?" The editor will grasp your hand and the bill and say, "You bet!" After giving him the news of your locality you will be permitted to retire with a receipt for an obligation properly discharged.—Ex.

A Mother's Love.

A mother's love, how many children refuse to heed the admonition of their parents. I have seen them get angry and work themselves up into raging fury, boys and girls, think twice before you break your mother's heart. If in the past you have failed to appreciate her love and care, begin now to return some of it. If you have left her on account of some petty grievance go back and laugh the trouble away. She will meet you with the dear smile that beams only on a mother's face and clasp you in the arms of which you have long, oh, so long been stranger. Don't wait until in answer to the summons that will surely come, you arrive too late to hear the sound of the voice that is still and can only gaze on the dear old face, with its tired eyes forever closed and press a kiss on the folded wrinkled hands whose work is forever done.—Ducktown Gazette.

ED. NUGGET:

In reference to the postal charges against Marion Parks in The Nugget recently, I did not make them. If any has gone up to the department in my name it is a forgery, for I certainly have never had any communication with them concerning this matter whatever, either written or verbal, nor have I to any detective or inspector, or authorized any one else to sign my name to such.

F. E. BOWEN.

Horse meat is now for sale all all over Paris. It goes particularly to compose those little brown sausages which, it is said, those American tourists are so fond of partaking as an appetizer at hotels and restaurants, never imagining that weary old cars horses have contributed to the delicacy. At the municipal slaughter house, used exclusively for horses, it is said that an average of 250 a day have been dispatched since the beginning of June. Veterinarians carefully inspect the animals before they are killed, especially to see that none with the glanders slip through, for a recent death of a workman from glanders after a dinner of roast rib of a mare has occasioned some uneasiness. Authorities pronounce the meat of the horse to be as nutritious as beef, and on the whole more wholesome. Still most of us will continue content with the meat of the good old bovine animal.—Marietta Journal.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

The Eureka Herald tells the following story on a cattlemans of that town. A short time ago his little daughter complained because it began to rain just as she was ready to start to Sunday school and remarked that it always rained when she wanted to go anywhere. Her father said to her: "Daughter, you should not complain. God makes it rain. If it didn't rain we could not live. The rain makes the grass, the grass makes the cattle fat, I sell the cattle and get money to live on. So you see you shouldn't grumble when it rains." A short time afterwards this little girl went on a visit and one of her friends asked her what her father did for a living and she replied: "Oh, he just lays around in the hammock and takes it easy and God makes the living."

Some people predict that there will be fifty thousand people at the State Fair's All Day Singing in Atlanta next October. Prof. A. J. Showalter, one of the best known singers in the country, will be director, assisted by a committee of one from every county. He and the other singers are enthusiastic and they expect to hold the greatest All Day Singing in the history of the world. The Singing will be open to every State. The Fair will entertain all singers.

Yellow fever has appeared in Mississippi, carried there from New Orleans by a negro woman.

Peace terms between Russia and Japan have been agreed upon, by the Japs yielding on every point.

Total number of cases of yellow fever in New Orleans up to Wednesday night 1,892. Deaths 267.

The chief of police of Atlanta has been making vagrants scarce in that city during the past few days.

Those peace envoys get $200.00 for expense money alone. This accounts for the slow progress of business.

Manilla is threatened with an outbreak of the Asiatic cholera. Two soldiers have already died with the disease.

Footpads held up Mr. Clifford Wetchner with red pepper in Atlanta the other night and robbed the man of $80.

The Seventeenth Regiment, Infantry, U. S. A., arrived at Fort McPherson last week from the Philippine Islands.

Five hundred thousand dollars worth of cotton was burned in New York last week, caused by lightning striking a warehouse.

On account of the increase in the liquor tax the school tax will run to $2,000,000, if not more, the largest in the history of the state.

Georgia's tax rate has been fixed at $4.30 on the thousand dollars, which is 10 cents increase on the thousand over last year, necessary to meet appropriations.

There is so many capital cases in Jefferson county, Ala., that it requires the services of two grand juries this week—one at Birmingham and the other at Bessemer.

At a state convention of negro Baptists at Dallas, Texas, last week, the whites were commended for burning Tom Williams at the stake recently for attacking a white woman.

Mrs. Sanford has gone into the insurance business, and the Commerce News says if she really believes her husband will be hanged she ought to go round and induce him to take a policy.

P. Y. Jarman died at Covington, Ga., last week with an insurance on his life of $72,000, and the payment of several policies will not be made before an investigation takes place, as it is thought that he committed suicide.

A negro was taken from the jail of Craven county, N. C., last Monday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock by a mob of 100 men and put to death by hanging and bullets, because he struck a woman on the head with a meat axe and attempted robbery.

According to a telegram, Mayor Woodward, of Atlanta, got on a big drunk up at Chicago last week while attending the League of American Municipalities and made an ass of himself by assailing Mayor Dunne of Chicago, from the rostrum of the convention hall.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Worker of America, declares that his organization will, at the expiration of the present wage agreement, April next, demand recognition of the union and an eight hour day. So we may then expect much silliness, suffering and trouble until the matter is settled.

Auraria Items.

Nice autumn weather we are having. 'Possum and 'faters' will soon be ripe, and won't we be in our glory?

Mr. Tom Holloway has got his patch of gold dug and he is all smiles now, for he has a nice nest egg laid up for rainy days.

Frank Eldridge is pulling the grass from his corn patch so he can find his roasting ears, for he is expecting Judge Simeon P. Shope and Mr. Robert Stuyvesant Disney down in a very few days and want to feed them on fresh new sweet corn.

The J. C. Mine is working quite a force of men operating up their patch of gold and the owners have gone off to get help to dig it.

Prof. Arnold has returned from Philadelphia, and the Southern Power Co. will make things hum now.

There will be about 28 people who are going to take water next Sunday and we expect a big day and we want everybody and their mother-in-laws to come.

Miss Pauline Whitehead, of Atlanta, is visiting Miss Bessie Miller, and we hope that she will make her visit quite lengthy, for she is indeed a perfect little lady and so nice and sociable with every one.

Judge G. H. Tanner, of Atlanta, is stopping with Mr. John Hutcheson, and has a force of men operating up his gold mine. We wish Mr. Tanner a big success in working this property.

Mr. Joe Dan Miller has an order for a nice, lean, lank pig, to be shipped to Mr. Jim Colby of Ord, Neb. Mr. Colby is perfectly carried away with our new stock of hogs, and wants one shipped up there so as to display it to his friends.

Prof. Jim Wheelchel, overseer of roads, finds it very difficult to hire men to work the roads, as nearly every one is employed to work in the gold mines.

We understand that a good first-class expert mining engineer advertised in The Nugget a few weeks back to "envelop" mines, but has quit or withdrawn his ad, and gone to "exhausting" to sinners to flee the wrath to come, and will let the mines go without being "enveloped."

Wanted—A first-class builder, to build a good pontoon boat to save black sand. Bids received up to Sept. 8th, with the right to reject all if not satisfactory. Address bids to Chestnut Pontoon Co., P. O. box 49, Auraria, Ga.

I am afraid we are going to lose one of our young lady teachers soon, from the way a certain fellow wears his hat on the side of his head and blushes when the lady speaks to him.

DIXIE BOY.

There was a terrific electric storm in Atlanta on Wednesday last week. The rain fell in torrents, the wind blew and the lightning flashed. One young man was killed and the capitol and another building were struck by lightning twice, and nearly a thousand 'phones were crippled.

Senator Furr's bill requiring Georgia sheriffs to keep track bounds for running down escaped criminals is going to make these dogs be in demand. We look for somebody to "corner" on them.

Porter Spring News.

Road working is the order of the day. The overseer of this district is putting in every day now.

Well, there is a merchant up here who is fighting the road law because he has to pay a little more tax, and still at the same time, buys a ten cent cigar to smoke when he goes to meeting. The tax on cigars and corn liquor never gets too high.

There is no use of grumbling about hard times any longer. I saw a man at meeting the other day with a sack full of money, and another man had his hand full of greenback. So, you see if the bank robbers don't get us we are going to put up a bank.

Well, there is more trouble up here. I thought our meeting would hide the tomahawk, but before the meeting broke a deacon got into it with another man's wife and it may go the court yet, but we are going to keep it out if we can.

The preacher and his pension are in more trouble; but nevertheless, he has bought him a fine watch. He says he paid a little less than $19.00. Pretty good for a pauper! I will give his troubles later.

There was a young man who came over to see his girl and stayed so long that he had to have his shirt washed. I guess he had to go to bed till his shirt got dry.

"Cursing" Bill Cain was out at Yahoola meeting last Sunday with a derby on, which shows progressive times in that part of the vineyard. GUESS WHO.

What B. R. Meaders & Sons Have to Say.

We are now opening up a new lot of shoes that we sell at a very close price. In fact, cheaper than you can get the same qualities at in many of the railroad towns.

The biggest lot of stationery and school supplies ever opened up by us will arrive tomorrow and the price, as usual, will be lower than anywhere else.

Our calico was bought when cotton was 7c and we have not advanced the price, although cotton is up 3c per pound.

Try us on—style groceries one time, flour, hard, meat, rice, coffee, sugar, etc. We keep the best grades, and on some of this stuff will save you some on the cost.

Oolong tea, the old reliable kind, 40c per pound. A fine grade of parched coffee, 15c. Shaving brushes, 5c to 25c; tooth brushes, 3c to 35; hair brushes, 10c to 45c; horse brushes, 5c to $1.50; cloth brushes, 10c to 50c; nail brushes, 5c to 25c.

Socks and stockings, 10c to 25c; shoes for women 80c to $2.50. Shoes for children, 25c to $1.75. Shoes for men 90c to $3.50.

8-day alarm clocks, $2.25, worth $3.00. Watch chains, 25c. Mo-Beth lamp chimneys, last longer than any other, 10c for No. 2. The best grade of electric lamps made, 25c.

It will be a pleasure to us, and we believe a benefit to you, to have you call and examine our goods and get our prices whether you buy anything or not.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Mrs. James B. Anderson, after spending several months in Dahlonega left last Tuesday to join her husband in Alabama.

All of the eight new county bills have been signed by the governor and we have Tift, Crisp, Jenkins, Davis, Turner, Grady, Stephens and Toombs counties. The map men have a big, fat job ahead of them now.

There is a law against the killing of bats in Georgia, but the gentleman of Cleveland, Ga., who got out in front of his office and shot at them, didn't violate this law, because he is not good enough marksman to kill a bat.

It seems that Georgia's fine display of minerals, wood, etc., is placed away up in the capitol at Atlanta, where a fellow has to climb three flights of stairs to get to it. A display in this condition is worthless.

JUST TO BE FAIR

The Atlanta News Wishes to Know Who is Right About Rates.

A dispatch from Birmingham says that Gov. Jelks will probably call an extra session of the Alabama Legislature. One object of the extra session will be to pass an act giving to Alabama the same railroad rates charged in Georgia.

Commenting on this, the Atlanta News says: "Either our freight rates are better than Alabama's, or they are worse. The issue is distinctly made between the politicians of the two states.

"Only the rate sheets themselves can settle the controversy, and what better service can the Georgia Commission render this honest campaign of education than to publish side by side from official sources the rate sheets of the two states and give the people who vote exact and official information upon one of the vital issues of our politics.

"This is fair. This is honest. This is just.

"And while the commissioners are about it, it might be well to give the people (not in statement and assertion, but in facts and figures) the truth of Commissioner Brown's statement in the Sunday Telegraph, that the present port rates from Atlanta to the Georgia coast cities were lower by nearly 50 per cent than the port rates to equal distances in Carolina and Alabama to the coast.

"In this campaign of education it is now the commission's time to give the people the facts.

"No victory won upon misstatement or injustice can be wholesome or permanent.

"Let us be just, though the heavens fall."

The public school here begins on next Tuesday. The teachers are: W. L. Ash, principal; assistants: Miss Kate Fiver, Miss Fannie Gaillard and Mrs. B. J. Ferguson. A much larger attendance is expected this term than at any time before, as a number of families are moving in to take advantage of the school.

It begins to look like the parties speaking of building an electric railway from Roswell through Milton, Forsyth, Dawson to Dahlonega and on up to Tullahoma Falls are in business. Col. J. N. Bateman, an Atlanta attorney, has written Judge Evans, our efficient ordinary, in reference to the franchise through this county, stating that he is making an effort to raise a million dollars for its construction. This is a splendid route, because it passes through several valuable farming counties, rich with minerals besides containing many other things that would be of importance to a railway. It is useless to say that the franchise will be granted. This is the road the people of this section want.

Mr. Wash Rider, a man who is truthful, told us this week that he had a rooster to lay an egg. It didn't take time to make a nest like a hen but deposited it in the yard. The rooster was killed and it was found that it would have furnished four more eggs. The matured egg was the size and shape of a hen egg, but the interior make up was different as the white was in one end and the yellow in the other. This may seem strange to some but big protracted meetings are in progress all over Lumpkin county, causing eggs to be high and scarce, and the rooster got sorry for the hens and aimed to assist them.

Those who attended campmeeting at Lumpkin from this place last Sunday inform us that the attendance was very large and the conduct good close to the harbor, but near by, in the outskirts of the campment, there was plenty of corn liquor and brandy for all who wished to indulge and pay a dollar a quart for it. Preachers seemed to be scarce. They had to send to Gainesville and tell one that he must return and do his part. Had the camp ground been the place to pay the men their salaries the ground would have been covered with them and they could not have been driven away until the last cent of it was paid so more than you can get a country editor out of town when he is expecting a fellow in who is owing him a quarter. Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Dahlonega, preached the 8 o'clock sermon.

Col. Price has been busy for some weeks in having carpenters and painters at work on the old Baptist church, which has been converted into a dwelling since the erection of the new house of worship. The building is now in good shape for occupancy and is next to the highest point in Dahlonega, from which you can see all over the town and view the beautiful Blue Ridge mountains many a league away. In looking over the building last Sunday we thought of the many good sermons we used to hear delivered in this old church long years ago when it was the custom for every body, both old and young, to attend services at least once a week, and run in for too the many good old citizens who visited that place and have long since gone to their reward. Some of you may think strange when we say that it made us feel sad to think of all these things of the past, but recollections like these are enough to make one feel so, even if it be an humble country editor.

Gen. Harden, of Kentucky, was among the visitors who arrived in our city last Friday.

Some grading is being done on the public school ground for the purpose of being sodded.

Mr. J. C. Hill, wife and children, of Houston, Ga., were in our city this week. Mr. Hill attended college here many years ago.

Mr. James B. Witt came over from McCays, Tenn., on Tuesday and carried his wife back home the next day. Mrs. Witt is in bad health.

Mr. John Tolbert was wedded on Sunday night to Miss Mary Bella Adams, daughter of Mr. James Adams, G. H. McGuire, Esq., officiating.

Among our mining views are the Bunker Hill and Briar Patch dredges and the giant and lift at the Calhoun. Twenty-five cents each for these photos.

Yahoola has had a glorious meeting resulting in several conversions and the best of order. The meeting was conducted by Revs. Taylor Dowdy and J. W. West.

Mr. Tompkins, of North Carolina, was sent for to start up the Consolidated Co's. chlorination plant, who came but upon examination found it to be different to the one he understood, and would not take hold of it.

Mr. Howard Stanton leaves for Douglas, Ga., tomorrow where he goes to accept a bookkeepers place at a good salary. Mr. Stanton is one of Dahlonega's most popular young men, full of business and perfectly reliable. We extend to him our best wishes.

While in our office last week, Mr. William Grindle, of Frogtown district, said that he had an idea of making the race for tax collector of Lumpkin county next time. There are already some six or eight other names mentioned, and politics will warm up later on.

Last week Mr. T. M. Tate of Dahlonega, was internally injured by a lot of coal being dumped on him while he was working for a railroad company in Atlanta. His wife and father met him at Gainesville and brought him home on Friday. We are glad to see that Mr. Tate is able to be out again.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the summer was an informal reception given on last Saturday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock by Capt. and Mrs. William B. Fry, at their lovely home on Park street, in honor of Mrs. Fry's sisters, Mrs. Robert Tackabury, of Leads, South Dakota, and Miss Grace Valentine, of Chicago. The house was elaborately decorated in potted and cut flowers and palms, and refreshments were served in a most charming manner. Misses Irene Moore and Mary Johnson presided at the punch bowl in a most charming manner. Among those present were: Prof. and Mrs. B. P. Gaillard, Prof. and Mrs. B. J. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Meaders, Col. W. P. Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gurley, Mrs. B. A. Craig; Mrs. J. E. Meaders, of Swainsboro, Ga.; Miss Bessie Miller, of Annapolis; Misses Blanche Gurley, Maggie Crissom, Clorissa Stow; Hollen Norris, of Washington, D. C.; Marion Witt, of McCays, Tenn.; Sallie Gaillard, Marie Gaillard, Mary Johnson, Irene Moore, Clifford Castlebury, Miss Valentine, Mrs. Tackabury; Messrs Doyle Moore, of Cive Springs, Ga.; Claud Gurley, E. B. Eldridge, Whorton Anderson, George M. Stanton, L. C. VanVleck, J. Montie Moore, Dr. Homer Head. During the evening Mrs. Tackabury charmed the guests by the rendition to them of her best readings. Each selection was enjoyed to the fullest extent, especially was the selection from Mr. Dooley enjoyed.

Mrs. Fannie Hatfield, of Monticello, Ga., is up on a few weeks visit to her relatives at this place.

Miss Pattie Thompson, of Bluffton, Ga., was among the visitors who arrived in Dahlonega last week.

Mr. W. B. Anderson is now clerking in the store for Mr. G. D. Bruce. Billie is clever and is sure to please the customers.

Mrs. E. A. Sanders, of Boulsters, Colorado, arrived in our city last week and is stopping at Hall's Villa, with the intention of spending several weeks in Dahlonega.

FOR SALE OR RENT—A 10-room house, with large barn and out-buildings and garden, in Dahlonega. Apply to

J. H. McKee, McKee, Ga.

The Queen of the Mountains, Porter Springs, Ga., has had a most pleasant and successful season, having been full all summer. The hotel closes on Friday, the 15th of September, and Col. Farrow will spend a few weeks in Atlanta with his children.

On Saturday the sheriff of Pickens county wired Marshal Walker to know if Vada Pruitt lived in this county, but did not state what was wanted. The next day at noon two gentlemen who said that they were brothers and were named Steward, one from Gordon county and the other from Pickens, arrived in Dahlonega, inquiring about the same lad. Upon being informed that Vada had moved to Jackson, Ga., they departed without even telling the marshal what was wanted to the lad. They didn't seem to want to tell. They first talked like they wanted him and then one said that he had been staying with him and he wished to see the lad and tell him that it was best for him not to go back to Pickens, but it doesn't look like it would have taken both those men to convey such news to Vada. There is some trouble in some way, but we do not know what it is.

On Friday evening last, at the college chapel, Mrs. Anne Valentine Tackabury charmed a large and appreciative audience with a reading recital. The recital consisted of selections of dialect, humorous and dramatic readings, and was rendered in such a manner as to entirely charm the vast audience, assembled to listen to the recitations of this gifted woman.

And for more than two hours the assemblage sat spell bound listening to this splendid recital, and at the end of each piece the audience gave vent to its appreciation of the reader's good work by hearty applause. Mrs. Tackabury was assisted in the entertainment by Miss Fannie Gaillard, pianist, and Miss Mamie Tillson, violinist, both of whom are competent musicians. Especially did the audience appreciate the violin renditions of Miss Tillson, the sweet notes of whose violin have so often charmed the people of our little city, and as she will soon take her departure from Dahlonega, the people were real glad of the opportunity of once again hearing her. The entertainment was an eminent success. In every particular, and quite a large sum was realized from the sale of tickets which was given to the Presbyterian church.

Mining News.

The Singleton mill is about done and will be running next week if nothing unforeseen takes place.

Dotson and Brooksher have their drain cut to the new gravel at the Ivy and are expecting to make an extra good clean up this week.

McAfee-Lind are working every day, and getting out some splendid ore, and we understand expect to make some practical improvements soon.

It won't be long until the 'chlo-ri-nation plant, down at the Hand will be put in operation again. The wood and everything is being prepared for it.

Moore and McDonald are now doing well with their lift over on the Columbia property, taking out regular scarf pin nuggets, some of which weigh a pennyweight and a half.

The Mountain Valley Co. has never organized yet, but have men at work every day cutting a reservoir, and expect to be running the placer part of this property at an early date.

The J. C. Mine has quite a force of men opening up and developing this great property, and success is expected as a reward for the push and energy put forth by the two hustlers who are in charge of it.

The Bunker Hill people are keeping up the good work, cleaning off right of way for canal pipe line and flume way, and opening up veins every day. This company means business, and is in the business to make money working for gold, and we feel sure that they will succeed, as they have splendid property and the parties in charge have always succeeded in every enterprise and know no such word as fail. The dredge is working along every day, and the gravel shows up better than at any time since it commenced operation.

Every one who has visited the Battle Branch mine is well pleased with the plans adopted by Mr. Rogers and the progress that he is making. He has a large force of hands at work on the canal and pays 'them every Saturday night. While this work is going on he is having a tunnel driven to strike the veins. A small pocket was struck not long ago, and we hope and believe that Mr. Rogers will strike some of those five and ten thousand dollar pockets like Mr. Hockenbush used to find many years ago before his death. We don't see how he can miss them with the large supply of water power which he is obtaining.

All the mines around Auraria are moving right along with a good lick. More activity is being displayed in her mines now than at any time in the past, and more people are expected here in a few days for the purpose of investing in the different mines than ever before and we are glad to see the people waking up to the fact that there is good money to be made in gold mining if gone at in a business like manner. We have plenty of gold, and all the advantages over most of the gold countries. The climate is perfect and the water cannot be beat on this round globe, and what we need is capital, push and good common sense judgment and success will be stalking around every mine operating in this county in chunks sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical.

Every thing continues to look bright and progressive down at the Barlow. They are taking out fine ore and frequently find some fine specimens. The vein in the Ogle shaft is at least five and a half feet and of high grade. In addition to this they have the tunnel vein, another very rich body of ore which is being cut at another point, which is three feet, saying nothing about other valuable veins on the property. A considerable depth has been reached at the Ogle already, cutting through the vein many feet. All of this is to stope out as soon as they get as deep as it is intended. The Barlow has already convinced the natives and those interested, that deep mining is profitable down there.

Mr. Craig R. Arnold, president of the Southern Power and Milling Co., returned from the north last Saturday where he has been, to lay in the machinery for the gold saving process which he has invented to be installed at the Etowah, one of the mines owned by this company, capable of handling four tons of concentrates daily, being sufficient to work all at that place. Mr. Arnold has the greatest confidence in his new invention, feeling satisfied that it will accomplish what it was made for. They already have a ten stamp mill and a Huntington at the Etowah and the results are satisfactory. More stamps will be added. At Turkey Hill, another valuable mine owned by this Company, hands are engaged in taking out ore. At the Arnold-Loud things are moving a long in good shape, the clean ups being splendid. This Company has recently received its charter and been organized. It owns much valuable mining property in this section, and very soon will begin to spread out its work and do business on a much larger scale.

We are glad to learn this week that some of those interested will be down next week and begin much more active work on the valuable property owned in this county, by the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co., located in the main gold mining belt of Lumpkin county. The Company is capitalized at $2,500,000, and has been chartered under the laws of Georgia. Its officers and directors principally reside in Chicago and St. Louis, being men of means and business qualifications. It seemed to some that this company was moving slow, but we must consider that large bodies move slowly and generally accomplish what is undertaken. This company has been very cautious since its organization, paying as it goes, getting every thing in readiness so as to be able to move along without any of the delays that are some times caused in mining operations by the directors and other officers not taking a business view of the matter. But now members of the company inform us that they are able to proceed with business on a large yet systematic scale. The tubing on the canal, which is to convey water to the property will be completed next week, so the contractor informed us this week. As stated before this property is located in the heart of the mining belt of this section. It comprises the celebrated Briar Patch and Calhoun properties which adjoins the great Barlow mine that has already produced thousands of dollars worth of gold. The placer diggings of the Briar Patch have already proven to be very rich and the dredge boat in the Chestnut river has shown the bed of the stream to be likewise. So has the placer at the Calhoun, which never ceases operation except on Sunday and at night. The veins have already produced much gold. At this mine they have sufficient water to furnish all the power necessary at either mine, and members of the company inform us that the necessary machinery will be installed for the purpose of utilizing it at once. Judge Shope has come from recovered, and he and Mr. Robert S. Disney will be at the mines this week, and Mr. Bush is expected down in a few days, and it is their intention to push matters as fast as possible, in the way of fully equipping this splendid property. The Briar Patch is all right, and all she needs is plenty of push behind her and she will come out with flying colors.

Lumpkin County's Oratorical contest takes place here tomorrow. A dozen or more schools will be represented and a big time among the pupils is expected. The races for prizes will take place on the public square in the forenoon, and at noon a picnic and the rest of the program will be finished at the park. Everybody invited to attend. Come out and see what teachers and pupils have taken the most interest in the schools.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

After a man has parted with his hair, his chief desire is to part it.

Few men realize what a splendid impression they could make by keeping their mouths shut.

A man's wife discovers that he should have a raise in salary long before the boss does.

No matter how much they may suffer, few men are heroic enough to try the harvest field for insomnia.

It requires extra good eyesight to see a friend in need.

Don't expect a man to forget it if he does you a good turn, because he won't.

The honeymoon, like Luna, is dimmed if the couple are on their last quarter.

When a woman is singing the baby to sleep, there is where the listener gets some real music.

Divorce costs more than marriage. It is like going into a free show where they take all of your money away from you before you get out.

As a matter of principle some men refuse to be good unless they can draw a salary for it.

If nature never makes a mistake, she certainly plays some great jokes.

Picnic Pleasures

When it rains on picnic day,
What a disappointed crowd
Gathers round and in dismay
Watches each dark, heavy cloud
Scouring across the blue
Picnic parties to undo!

Hampers open, tallyho
Striding away down the street,
All the girls afraid to go.
While to stay seems such complete
Foolishness it makes you swear
(To yourself) that you are there.

Soon the storm is bound to break,
Hurries up the tallyho,
In we hustle bread and cake,
Close the hampers, hungry go
On our dismal homeward ride,
While the raindrops play outside.

Everybody's out of tune,
Half a dozen girls are mad;
Then, if he is not immune
To bad temper, every lad
Finds there is the device to pay
When it rains on picnic day.

A Slow Saver.

"He is saving his money to buy a marriage license."
"Has he got the girl picked out?"
"No; he doesn't see any use of being in a hurry. The license costs $2.50."

Very Frank.

"I will give you my answer in a week."
"Will it be favorable?"
"That depends on how my brother reports on your rating."

Plain Enough.

"You know there were giants in those days."
"Which days?"
"The days when there were giants, you goose."

If They Are Human.

I wonder if they love and hate
And sing and dance and go to war
On Mars, and if they sit up late
To learn about the baseball score,
I'd like to know about these things,
If joy and pain they understand.
Some day when I'm possessed of wings
I'll go and take them by the hand.

Confessed Relationship.

"Brother Jones, I think you are a fool."
"That must come from your habit of calling me brother."

Not Any More.

"She is forty years old if she is a day."
"That settles it, for I guess she would own up to being a day."

Might Be an Improvement.

"He threatens to blow out his brains."
"Think his friends will notice the difference?"

Did She Give It?

I never saw a purple cow
Except upon a poster bright,
But I have often seen, I vow,
Some purple milk all right.

In the penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., there is a prisoner who was twenty-three years ago sentenced to be hanged. It seems the order of the court was forgotten, and during the long years the man lived each day fearing that the next would be his last. It is claimed that the state's right to execute the sentence has now long since elapsed, and habeas corpus proceedings have been begun to secure the prisoner's release. This is probably the first time in the history of the country that a condemned murderer was forgotten in jail.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration. Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nervine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of indigestion which left me very weak, and in bad condition. I went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and a few bottles of it cured me. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. After taking a few doses of Nervine the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am feeling better than ever."

Acts and Chronicals of Men of Uncle L. Sam.

And it came to pass that Teddy, chief, set down for to eat with one who was buff colored, and many of the people cried out, "the Cat," for they did not want what they spoke of.

But they spoke of schools, and of making people, and not of changing spots on the leopard.

Now, also at other times and places, ladies did swim the buff colored, but the scribe knoweth not of what they spoke, but they "saw it act." But many of the multitude smelt—and of the people. And they smelt afar off as of the burning of flesh, as the offering of burnt offerings and the people ask what causeth all this unskullery.

And one who was mighty and carried a great pitch fork, a sworded them, saying, "Behold the leaders, for is it not written in many journals and by many scribes, and is it not for votes and office," and the people murmured.

And many sought to wash their hands of this matter—even as Pontius Pilate sought to wash his hands of that other matter.

Now Teddy carried a harp of two strings, one played reform, the other square deal. And he spoke to those who hold office, and the referees say, "Dance to my cat gait."

Many could not dance, for their swampy and staid feet for many months, and they were afooted. And it is not written, "Dance to my cat gait." And the office holders for a comb of shavers, and Stayers and spoke to the referees, saying, "Go to, I am not a divine call to remain, and are we not sun punkins?"

And some men of Uncle L. Sam did sweep. Yea, even in Teddy's own household in the house of his, that scatter seeds and send forth pissants, and they got by.

And many rent out "musket-mention em" and they wrote not after Sinclair Causey, but after Adam L. Fox.

A Sharp Trick of a Lumpkin County Lady.

It is hard to beat a lady when she sets her head to do a thing. A short time ago a certain woman, residing near the foot of the Blue Ridge in this county, wanted and needed a new hat. She had a husband and a grown son but they claimed to be too poor to buy a hat and the lady had to go bare-headed about the house and wear a bonnet when she went visiting, causing her to feel bad on account of not being able to look as stylish as other women. One day her son and husband went off and bought two or three gallons of beer. They used to use a long as they wanted it. The lady if the house would pour out a little of this liquor as an opportunity was offered and hide it. The men continued drinking without missing what the lady took. After a while she got a sufficient amount to sell and they had a hat. This sale will never cause this woman to be prosecuted in either the state or United States courts.

And now that rural mail routes are being established all over the country it will do away with much politics, because many postoffices have and will be discontinued and the carrier is not like a postmaster, he will have no time to electioneer and will not have to pledge his support to anyone in order to keep his job.

Georgia's New Counties.

Grady county, composed of parts of Thomas and Decatur counties, with Cairo for its county seat.

Tift county, composed of parts of Berrien, Worth and Early counties, with Tifton as its county seat.

Turner county, composed of parts of Irwin, Wilcox, Dooley and Worth counties, with Asburn as its county seat.

Crisp county, composed of a part of Dooley county, with Cordelo as its county seat.

Jeff Davis county, composed of parts of Appling and Coffee counties, with Hazlehurst as its county seat.

Toombs county, composed of parts of Tatnall, Emanuel and Montgomery counties, with Lyons as its county seat.

Jenkins county, composed of parts of Burke, Emanuel and Bulloch and Screven counties, with Millen as its county seat.

Stephens county, composed of parts of Franklin and Habersham, with Toccoa as its county seat.

Always Retain a Husband's Love.

We know it is easy enough to win a husband. Almost any attractive little maiden with a bright eye and coaxing voice, can gather in a husband, but it is more difficult to retain his love. The great difficulty is to draw out his true nobility and secure it at home.

If the wife only understands her business she can do this. Most men like to be loved and soothed. There is something in the man's great, rough, ear-soft nature that can be won quicker and easier with gentleness than by the logic of the broom-handle.

We have seen a girl who understood her business take a man and lead him through life in such a way that he wouldn't know but that he was managing her. So perfect was the deception that, when she asked him to bring in a bottle of cologne, he always went, and he felt as though he counted it a mark of special favor that a poor unworthy creature like himself should be allowed to do so.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonge, Ga.

Society ladies in the town of Haparanda, in Sweden, have just arrived at an interesting decision on a point of street etiquette. They have decided to relieve men of the necessity of doffing their hats to ladies in the streets as long as the cold weather lasts. It has gone forth that during the winter all that will be expected from men will be a military salute. The ladies took this step as the result of studying medical statistics, which established the fact that in winter there are three times more men suffering from cold, neuralgia, toothache and influenza.

The Persians very seldom hang a man for crime. If he kills another he is fined $15 and allowed to go. If he kills ten or twelve, and the people finally decide that he ought to be put out of the way, he is hanged. But he is not hanged as they hang men in this country. He is suspended by the feet, and a heavy weight is tied to his head. Then he is allowed to die.

A western newspaper offered a prize for the best answer to the conundrum: "Why is a newspaper like a woman?" The puzzle was won by a young lady in Oklahoma who sent in the following answer: "Because every man should have one of his own and not run after his neighbor's."—Ex.

THE NUGGET

AHLONEGA, SEPTEMBER 8, 1905.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga., P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:
$1.00 12 Months,
50 cts. 6 Months,
30 cts. 3 Months.

The estimated cotton crop of Georgia is half as large as last year.

Yellow fever cases in New Orleans up to Wednesday 2,111 deaths 294.

J. A. Downs assumed the duties of postmaster at Blairsville, Ga., a few days ago.

Last Monday was Labor Day. Every day in the week is labor day with country editors.

A case of yellow fever has developed in Atlanta. The man is from Pensacola, Fla.

Yellow fever has appeared in Pensacola, Fla., also in Natchez, Miss., and Vicksburg, Miss. The patient died last Tuesday.

President Roosevelt is receiving praises from all sides for having brought about peace between Japan and Russia.

Augusta has declared a quarantine against passengers from Atlanta, on account of yellow fever there. Arkansas has done likewise.

Mrs. Kate Southern, who killed another woman at a dance in Pickens county some years ago, accidentally killed her daughter while handling a pistol recently.

Sam Rainy, colored, made Hall county's first bale of cotton this year which was sent in last week. If all negroes were like this one there would be no lynchings in Georgia.

The expenses of the last legislature was $65,100, not including the expenses of the committees which are performing certain business that will come in at the next session.

Nina and Hester Phillips, two factory girls, were each fined one and cost last week for having violated the curfew law, besides this their absence from the factory, caused the suspension of 20 looms at Gainesville.

Last week the city council of Atlanta passed a resolution condemning the actions of Mayor Woodward while in Toledo, Ohio, recently. It seems that the acting mayor of that city was full of whiskey too—so drunk that he had to be placed in his chair.

The Board of Education of Lumpkin county held its quarterly session here last Monday and transacted such business as came before it. It was decided to make Noonday school a permanent institution. The commissioner read his report of the teachers' examination and the grade each made. There were 20 applicants who stood the examination. Three made first grade, four second, eight third and three failed to pass—one colored and two whites. Two of these were in charge of schools. These schools were ordered suspended until other teachers could be obtained. One white and one colored.

When Mr. Mr. W. B. Woodward returned to Dahlonega a short time ago he stated that he was here to spend his summer vacation. But since then he has taken charge of the quill of the Signal and is going to stay with us, judging from what he said in last week's paper. Here it is: "When the campaign opens in Lumpkin county we are going to make a fight for the Signal's friends—a fight, too, that will count. The few who have resorted to their dirty chicanery in trying to put the Signal on the cooling board, will receive such attention as they justly deserve. We intend to stand up to our rights, if it has to be done at the muzzle of a cannon."

Mining News.

All the mining operations not mentioned this week are moving along as usual.

The work in the Crown Mountain shaft is now going on both day and night.

Bev. Brooksher and Charlie Free, two native miners, are at work taking out ore from a vein on the Barlow property. A test run of four tons was made last week and the result was thirty-six pennyweights and eighteen grains of gold. Pretty good for two hands.

The mica of this section is beginning to attract the attention of people now. Mr. Ashley secured from one place in Lumpkin county a lot that brought him one dollar per pound. This he might say was from the surface. As yet there has been no beds of mica gone down on in this county but a few feet. The natives not knowing that mica was so valuable have given it no attention and know nothing about working or how or where to dispose of it in case they did.

The Singleton mill was finished and started operation at its new site last Monday afternoon. Everything is much more convenient at this point, and the conveying of the ore to the mill is done at a nominal cost, and Superintendent Jackson is certain to run the mine in such a manner as to make it profitable to its owners. It is the intention of Mr. Breyman, the president, to install a low pressure wheel, already on the ground. When this is done the water from the Yaboola dam will run the mill and the canal water can be used in operating the giant, enabling them to handle a much larger amount of material than at any time in the past.

Bunker Hill people are going ahead with their development work, and will soon have every thing ready for installing pumping plant, stamp mill and pipe and flume line. These people are not saying much, and are not given to boasting, but they move forward in a business like manner and are producing big results. In reply to many enquiries, are pleased to say that the above company is capitalized at $750,000 under the laws of Georgia and are offering a limited amount of stock, for the purpose of equipping the property, at twenty-five cents a share. We are well acquainted with some of the officers, and know them to be strictly honest, and believe they are in the mining business solely for the dividends they expect to get from the workings of this property, and knowing the property and the officers who are managing the affairs of the company as we do, cannot hesitate to say that we have absolute confidence in both. Mr. N. P. Riddell, the vice-president, gives the dredging his personal attention, who has the best experienced men employed, and the results are splendid. We were shown another lot of nuggets by Mr. Riddell last Monday, picked out of last week's clean up at the boat, some of them were larger than the ones found at the previous clean up and were very fine.

It is hard to find a loafer in Athens now. The police are enforcing the vagrant law, explain it.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the blood is in proper condition. A sluggish liver gives a coated tongue, bad breath, constipated bowels. Correct all these by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

SPENDING MILLIONS.

Work of the Railroads in Bringing in New Industries.

In an article on the progress and prosperity of the South, the New York Sun says that $40,000,000 have been invested in new industrial enterprises in the Southern states the last three years. "Probably the greater part of this can be traced either directly or indirectly to the work of the land and industrial departments of the railroads," says the Sun.

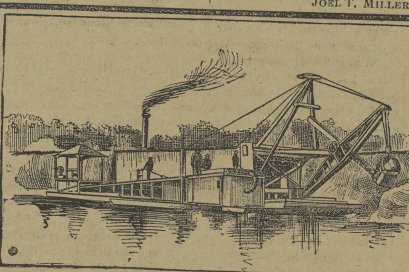

Every important road now has its industrial and immigration department with agents who are constantly on the lookout for new industries. Each road tries to get all the new mills, factories, colonies, farmers and truck growers it can. The agents hunt for the locations, and do all they can to settle new people along their lines. The Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line started tobacco growing in the Carolinas. The old Florida and Western promoted water melon raising in South Georgia. The Central of Georgia encouraged peach growing in the middle part of the State. The Southern has paid special attention to the building of new cotton mills in the South just as the L. & N. has encouraged the opening of coal and iron mines and the building of furnaces.

A railroad will spend thousands of dollars on side tracks and extensions to get a new industry located.

In Atlanta, the Southern is now spending $25,000 to put in new side tracks to a steel mill. A week or so ago this same company agreed to spend $230,000 on an extension to reach some mineral property which the owners want to develop. Other roads are doing the same things every week. Of course the roads expect to get a benefit from the new industry but it takes millions of money, which they are willing to spend, to develop and build up the country.

All the roads want active, intelligent young men in their industrial departments, the demand being greater than the supply.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS. NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,
JOEL T. MILLER.

Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But

LION COFFEE

Is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE THE LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Millions of American Homes welcome LION COFFEE daily. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity. "Quality survives all opposition."

Local News.

Mr. and Mrs. Sover, of Anuraria, spent a short while in Dahlonega Monday.

Mrs. Stephen Rice visited Gainesville this week to have some dental work done.

Mr. Frank Jones, of South Georgia, came up this week on a visit. Mr. Jones has many old friends here who are always glad to see him in our midst.

Duff Hunter went to campmeeting and failed to obey a street summons. When he returned, he was fined one and sent by Mayor Baker or 30 days on the streets.

Mr. Paul Boardfield was married to Miss Florence Edmonson on Sunday night by Rev. John Forest. Both are in their teens and the bride is the daughter of Mr. Henry Edmonson.

Jim Ray killed a large rattler out near Wild the other day. It measured four feet and eight inches long and nine and three-fourth inches round, and had ten rattles and a button.

We have been presented this week, by the Union Pacific Railroad, a copy of a famous historic picture, "Grant and party at Fort Saunders, Wyo., in 1867. It is a beautiful picture and we appreciate it very much.

A wedding occurred in Cano Creek district last Sunday. The contracting parties were Mr. B. O. Jones and Miss Brilla Crow, a daughter of Mr. John Crow. Rev. James Ridley officiated. The groom is near 60 and the bride about 20.

A certain young man goes out into the country frequently, a distance of 12 miles courting. As he was returning the other day he killed a large snake, together with 37 young ones ten inches long. This may scare this fellow off the track for awhile.

Every colored person in Dahlonega nearly, who could get any conveyance last Sunday, went up to Rock Spring campmeeting. There was a big crowd and a lively time, the usual amount of liquor but the meeting passed without any one being shot or cut.

The graded school opened last Tuesday morning with 133 pupils in attendance. There is quite a number of new faces among the pupils. It is an excellent school and is accomplishing much good in the way of preparing these pupils for the college.

Judge Shope, after sending a telegram last week to the effect that he was too unwell to visit this section, got better and made the trip all right, and is now taking lodging at the Dahlonega Gold Mining Co.'s club house down at the mine.

Mrs. J. D. Reeves, who has been stopping with Mrs. T. J. Smith, returned to her home in Atlanta Tuesday. She expressed herself as being well delighted with Dahlonega and the very pleasant and agreeable people here, and hopes, sooner or later, to make another visit.

Mr. Jim Huley of Lumpkin county, was wedded last Sunday to Miss Fannie Whitchel, a daughter of A. S. Whitchel, deceased, of Hall. Squire A. M. Martin performed the ceremony. It was his first but it is said that he did the job all right and started the young couple off on their happy journey for life.

In levying the county tax, Judge Evans has made some close businesslike calculations. The county was a little over five hundred dollars in debt when he took hold of the office. He has made a sufficient levy to settle this five hundred dollars, enough to run the county this year and half of next, so as not to have to be compelled to borrow money and pay interest. This causes an increase in the tax rate over last year, but the harder the storm the sooner it is over, and we heartily approve the action of Judge Evans.

Prof. W. L. Ash has moved in to the McKee house.

Miss Marie Gaillard has gone to teach a school at Cornelia, Ga.

Mr. J. R. Thomas has been repairing his dwelling at this place. Col. Bryson has moved his office back into the Hall House, next to the Bank.

Persons wanting shingles should go or write to Hutcheson Bros., Freda, Ga.

Mr. Metcalf, of Maine, is here this week examining some of the timber of this county.

The big baptizing at Anuraria last Sunday was visited by many people for miles around.

A few of our citizens attended Louisville campmeeting up in White county last Sunday.

The tax rate of Lumpkin county, including the state, is $1.35 on the one hundred dollars this year.

Mrs. Roberts, of Greensboro, Ala., came in last week with her son, who has been entered in the N. G. A. College.

There is a woman in this county who shouted recently when she saw her husband was drunk. This is not old time religion.

Maj. Tilton and family left last Monday for Fort Thomas, Kentucky, causing much regret among their many friends in Dahlonega.

Merchant Bruce has furnished the old Bessie House with suitable furniture and has opened out a restaurant in the lower story.

Porter is losing her summer visitors fast now and in a very short time the Queen of the Mountains will present a very dull appearance.

Mr. Martin Jones has been sick for several days. He has been unable to lay down for some time until last Sunday, on account of a severe cough.

Mr. Craig R. Arnold, president of the Southern Power and Milling Co., is now a citizen of Dahlonega and is located in the residence vacated by Maj. Tilton.

Mr. Kelley McGee, of White county, has moved down and located in the dwelling formerly occupied by Clerk Superior court. Cook Mr. Cook is in the Jim Anderson house.

Mr. J. M. Brooksher has had the upper story of his business house on the corner opposite Mr. H. D. Gurleys, made into office and Col. W. S. Huff is going to occupy one.

Mr. Dover Bell, who has been in Dahlonega for quite awhile, left this week with Maj. Tilton for Fort Thomas, Kentucky. We do not know whether Mr. Bell expects to return soon or not.

The new dam across the Highway river has been completed, and next week the company will begin the cutting of stock to be floated down stream to saw mills located at convenient places near the railroad.

In addition to a large and well selected stock of dry goods and a new lot of Walk Over Shoes, W. P. Price has just opened up a lot of the National Biscuit Co.'s goods, namely: Uneda Biscuit, Oysterettes, Marsh Mallow Dainties, Frodona, Uneda Milk Biscuit, Lemon Snaps, Zu Zu, Ginger Snaps, Butter Thins, Nabisco, assorted flavors; Testino, Cheese Sandwich, 5 o'clock Tea, Social Tea, Salines, Lady Fingers, Champagne Waiters.

Those who attended Louisville campmeeting last Sunday inform us that Presiding Elder Pierce was there. On Saturday before, he took up a collection for the benefit of the heathens, remarking that a man who could not give $2.50 for this purpose should pull off his pants and give them to the ladies. Only one gave this amount, but no one turned their pants over to the ladies. From such remarks as this it begins to look like the "heathens" will have to come and teach some of the people here how to talk and act in company.

Dr. Underwood, of Maysville, was here this week.

Our town is alive with school boys, and among them are many new faces.

Mr. Warren Hendricks' family, of Union county, have moved to Dahlonega.

The overseers are getting the public roads of this county in better shape than they have ever been.

Prof. Davis is still at the Iowa State College and will not return until about the middle of November.

Mrs. Strickland is receiving a few fall coats and later on will go to Atlanta and buy a complete stock.

Miss Eve McKee gave a very interesting entertainment one night last week at the school house near Wier.

If you need a two horse wagon, call on A. J. Anderson, Wier, Ga. They are made from home growth timber and ready for hard service.

You will find at J. F. Moore & Co. school books, tablets, pencils, book satchels, book straps, and, in fact, everything in school book supplies for city and county schools.

While out superintending work on the Briar Patch canal Wednesday Mr. W. B. Fry's horse stepped into a hole, causing the gentleman to fall and break one of his collar bones.

The manuscript of the Nolla River Association was received at this office last Friday and yesterday the minutes were in the hands of the clerk. This is our prompt manner of turning out job work.

One of our merchants renewed his ad in THE NUGGET for another year last week. He said that his business had increased during the past 12 months and he did not know what caused it unless it was THE NUGGET.

Dr. Glenn, president of the college, has made a new rule, which he says will be carried out to the letter, and that is when a student even takes a drink of liquor he will be sent home. The Doctor does not mean to tolerate it at all.

It used to be that old men carried their handkerchiefs and important papers in their hats. The other day we saw a negro woman buy a box of snuff and put it in her bosom, which will no doubt keep the bad bugs from disturbing her.

The visitors out at Randa last week were Rev. J. A. Sewell, of the North Georgia Conference, who is finishing up his fourth year as pastor at Lexington, Ga. His family was with him except one, Miss Pearl Cochran, of Gainesville, Ga.

Mr. George Moore has sold out his interest in the livery business and mail line to his brother Hughes, who will conduct the business hereafter alone. Mr. George Moore anticipates moving from Gainesville to South Georgia or some other point at an early day.

Some years ago the road hands in Crumley's district adopted a rule of their own to free all persons of road duty at the age of 45 who would turn the rest of the hands on something stimulating. Of course they always treated. But since the new road law has gone into effect all these 45-year old men have been required to perform road duty. It is useless to say that they are opposed to the new road law.

J. W. Lindsey, commissioner of pensions, sends a card to Judge Evans, requesting him to present all applications for consideration for 1903 by the 90th inst, and in order to do this, Judge Evans, on account of having to be out looking after the roads a good deal of his time, has fixed the 9th, 10th and 8th of this month to make out all such claims. If they are not sent in by the time fixed by the commissioner they will go over until next year for consideration. So look to your interest.

Two Mormon preachers visited Dahlonega last Wednesday.

Dr. Stow was up from Dawsonville this week.

The football trainer has already arrived and commenced his work.

Mr. E. W. Taylor, of Philadelphia, is among the visitors here this week.

Wanted at at once a good milk cow with young calf.

MISS MATTIE HUFF, of Half Way, has rented the Strickland House here and opened out a boarding house.

One boy, who came this week to enter college, not being able to buy any cigarettes in Dahlonega, returned home.

Judge Shope and Mr. Lindsey, of the Briar Patch Mine, have paid Dahlonega several visits since being in this county.

Mr. J. F. Prewitz has moved to Dahlonega and occupies the Broker's house in the lower end of town on Park street.

We are glad to see Councilman Tom Smith able to be out on the streets again after about a two weeks illness attack.

The parties who have been meddling with some of the peoples mail boxes between here and Gadsden town are liable to get into the penitentiary.

Mr. J. F. Moore has purchased the other half interest in the Public Spring property, near THE NUGGET office, and the property where Jim Phillips' shoe shop was located.

Corbin Ash, of this county, was bound over by Judge Baker last Tuesday, charged with blockading—running the still which was destroyed near his residence a few days ago.

The fall session of the N. G. A. College opened out with over one hundred students last Wednesday. Quite a number have entered since and others continue to arrive.

Prof. Barnes came in on Monday afternoon, soon had the dormitory supplied with eatables, and in a couple of days had nearly all the boys he could care for. The Professor is a hustler and is the right man in the right place.

Mr. R. C. Wood, who has been at DeFuniak Springs, Fla., since last fall, returned to Dahlonega last Tuesday. Mr. Wood generally spends the summer in Lumpkin county, but sickness prevented him doing so this time.

No road work has been done in Jones' Creek district under the new law. Eldridge Wehant was appointed by Judge Evans, but he resigned before he gave bond and this week Mr. Thomas G. Cronan was appointed in his place.

Jones' Creek district, in Lumpkin county, has not a single bailiff, constable or squire. No body in the district will have either one of the places, and if there is any business transacted it has to be done by the officials of an adjoining district.

At the Ordinary's court last Monday, the following administrators were appointed, to-wit: County Administrator of Geo. Chapman's estate, Mrs. M. M. Findley of Tom Parish estate, F. F. Anderson of H. F. Anderson estate, B. F. Christian of Mrs. Samantha Christians estate.

On Tuesday between sundown and dark Mr. Joe Swancy was shot in the side with a rifle near his home in Jones' Creek district, by some one in ambush. As there had been blood between Jim Lingerfelt (son of Sam) and Mr. Swancy's boys for some time, suspicion rested on Jim, who was arrested, tried, bound over on circumstantial evidence and is now in jail. The track fitted Jim's shoe and the ball patching found was the same kind that was in defendants shot pouch. The ball struck a rib and has not been found, and can not be told yet whether the wound is dangerous or not. Later—Mr. Swancy is not expected to live.

A Delightful Time for the School Children.

Last Saturday was a big day for the country school children in Dahlonega in foot racing for prizes and speaking and having a good time generally, although the rain the night before and the cloudy morning the next day prevented the proposed picnic at the park, yet many children and their parents came to town and all seemed to enjoy themselves as did the citizens of Dahlonega who witnessed the sport, as well as to see so many faces here, both old and young.

It was also the day for Lumpkin County's Oratorical Association to convene and this brought people from all parts of the county to listen to Dr. Glenn, address and the school childrens speaking contest for two beautiful medals. This Association was founded or gotten up by Hon. Carl Shultz a little more than a year ago, causing Mr. Shultz to feel proud of the success it is making as well as all of our citizens, for it is a good move and will be a big help to both pupils and teachers. It will create more interest in the public schools than anything that can be done. New life and interest will spring up in every school taking a part, and the teacher who is too dull to brighten up the ideas of the pupils of his or her school and cause them to take a part in this Association had better quit trying to teach and follow some other occupation. At the first session there were only five schools in the county represented. This time there were a boy and girl representative from fourteen different schools, less one pupil who was sick, all wanting the prizes. It is hoped by the next Association that every white school in the county will be represented.

After the foot racing was over at about 11 o'clock all repaired to the hall and filled the hall until there was not even standing room to be had to listen to Dr. Glenn's address. It was one of those happy occasions that over causes the Doctor to feel proud of. He spoke in glowing terms of the mountain boys and girls, giving them many words of cheer and advice, filling their young minds with useful thoughts that will never be forgotten. It was one of the most interesting addresses ever delivered in Dahlonega, causing all our citizens to feel proud of having such a bright and useful person as Dr. Glenn in our midst. At the conclusion of the address a recess of an hour was taken.

At 1 the contest began. Profs. Boyd, O'Byrne and Mrs. Ferguson were selected as judges, neither of whom knew a single contestant. The contestants were: Bertie Gaddis, Luther Gaddis, Charley Sain, May Lee, W. J. White, Juan Porter, Lon Hutcheson, Hershal Higgins, Sallie Hall, Hubert Reeves, Lon Summeron, Colrah Wehant, John Lingerfelt, Eunice Fitts, Grady Fitts, Luther McDonald, Gertrude Satterfield, Walter Pruitt, Leslie Walker, Benton Adams, Alma Adams, Mamie Stringer, Mary Bryant, Joe Bryant, Fred Jones, Bessie Walden, Mamie Fitts, Frank Fitts.

These little speakers kept the audience deeply interested for quite a while, and when the contest ended the judges compared their figures and found that Mamie Fitts and Frank Fitts, brother and sister, were just a little ahead of some of the others, yet enough to carry off the prizes. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Fitts, of Randa, Ga., who won the prizes one year ago. These parents take great interest in them and never fail to patronize the schools of that section.

Recently Mrs. Sam Lingerfelt took her letter out of a church in Fannin county for the purpose of putting it in Jones' Creek church in Lumpkin county, and when she went to do so her husband snatched it out of her hand and ran off home with it, leaving the woman shedding tears. What about such conduct as this?

The Council Meeting.

The city councils regular meeting was held last Monday night. There was nothing of importance except a resolution passed requiring Mr. G. McGuire to fumigate the dwelling owned by him where there was a case of smallpox last winter.

The marshals report showed the following cash collections: Street tax $34.00. Fines $15.00. Sanitary tax $4. fas. $4.40. Street tax collected in labor, $9.00.

What B. R. Meaders & Sons Have to Say.

We are now opening up a new lot of shoes that we sell at a very close price. In fact, cheaper than you can get the same qualities at in many of the railroad towns.

The biggest lot of stationery and school supplies ever opened up by us will arrive tomorrow and the price, as usual, will be lower than anywhere else.

Our calico was bought when cotton was 7c and we have not advanced the price, although cotton is up 4c per pound.

Try us on staple groceries one time, flour, lard, meat, rice, coffee, sugar, etc. We keep the best grades, and on some of this stuff will save you some on the cost.

Oolong tea, the old reliable kind, 40c per pound. A fine grade of parched coffee, 15c. Shaving brushes, 5c to 25c; tooth brushes, 5c to 35c; hair brushes, 10c to 45c; horse brushes, 5c to $1.50; cloth brushes, 10c to 50c; nail brushes, 5c to 25c.

Socks and stockings, 10c to 25c; shoes for women 80c to $2.50. Shoes for children, 25c to $1.75. Shoes for men 90c to $3.50.

8-day alarm clocks, $2.25 worth $3.00. Watch chains, 25c. More Beth napp chimneys, last longer than any other, 10c for No. 2. The best grade of electric lamps made, 25c.

It will be a pleasure to us, and we believe a benefit to you, to have you call and examine our goods and get our prices whether you buy anything or not.

Total - 76 " Making the aggregate of seventy-six cents on the one hundred dollars worth of the taxable property of said county, for county purposes for the year, 1905.

This the 4th day of September, 1905, G. G. EVANS, Ordinary.

Dr. HOMER HEAD, Surgeon & Physician, Dahlonega, Ga.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

According to John Adams, it should be July 2.

On the 3d of July, 1776, John Adams, then one of the representatives of Massachusetts in the Continental Congress, wrote to his wife Abigail:

"Yesterday the greatest question was decided which was ever debated in America, and a greater perhaps never was nor will be decided among men."

In a second letter, written the same day, he said:

"But the day is past. The 2d of July will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other from this time forward, forevermore."

When the resolution was taken up on the 2d, all the states, except New York, voted to accept it. Thus, on the 2d day of July, 1776, the independence of the thirteen united colonies from the throne of Great Britain was definitely decided upon. The 2d, and not the 4th, may be called the true date of the separation. We could with propriety celebrate the Fourth two days earlier. That the participants in the work considered the 2d as the true date is shown by the letters written by John Adams, quoted at the beginning of the article. The popular fancy, however, seized upon the 4th, the date of acceptance of Jefferson's more dramatic declaration of the reasons for the separation, as the proper day to celebrate.

The debate upon the document was continued until the afternoon of the 4th, and, says Jefferson, might have run on interminably at any other season of the year. But the weather was oppressively warm, and the hall in which the delegates sat was close to a stable, "whence the hungry flies swarmed thick and fierce, alighting on the legs of the delegates and biting hard through their silk stockings. Treason was preferable to discomfort," and at last the delegates were brought to such a state of mind as to agree to the Declaration without further amendment.

It is a mistake to suppose that the document was signed by the delegates on that day. It is improbable that any signing was done save by John Hancock, the president of the congress, and Charles Thomson, the secretary.—Paul Leland Haworth in Harper's Magazine.

ADAPTABILITY.

Adaptability's sails are set to catch any wind that blows.

To the man with adaptation an emergency is an opportunity.

Adaptability is the ability to adapt yourself quickly to unexpected conditions.

The bankrupt law is meant as an asylum for men who are without adaptability.

When one plan fails the man with adaptation has forty-nine untried others waiting.

Adaptability is always ready, is never taken at a short, is the great lightning change artist and often turns hopelessness into victory.

A general in battle, a statesman in office or a financier handling large enterprises without the ability to readily adapt himself to suddenly changed conditions is a misfit.—From Cent Per Cent.

The Shamrock.

In Ireland only one shamrock is known. It is an indigenous species of clover which trails along the ground among the grass in meadows. The three-fold leaves are not more than one-fourth the size of the smallest clover usually seen in America and are pure green in color, without any of the brown shading of white and pink clovers. The creeping stem is hard and fibrous and difficult to dislodge from the earth. On St. Patrick's day the true shamrock has to be searched out among the grass, for, though comparatively plentiful at that season, it grows close to the ground. Later it bears a tiny "white crown" blossom. The information that shamrock is the Arabic word for trefoil may be of service to those interested in the origin of the Irish race.

Varied Commencement Addresses.
An anxious inquirer was discussing with Bishop Frendergast the complex nature of some of his episcopal duties. "I should think you would find giving addresses at commencements particularly trying," said the inquirer questioning. "I do," sighed the bishop. "How can you manage to find anything original to say year after year?" probed the inquirer, determined to get at the root of the matter. "Oh, I don't," said the bishop, his face lighting up and expanding into a whimsical smile. "I don't say anything original. Each time I simply use different adjectives."—Philadelphia Record.

Playing Her Cards.

Tommy—May I stay up a little longer? Ethel—What do you want to stay up for? Tommy—I want to see you and Mr. Green playing cards. Mr. Green—But we are not going to play cards. Tommy—Oh, yes, you are, for I heard mamma saying to Ethel that everything depended on the way in which she played her cards tonight.

Under an Act just passed by the Generally Assembly drunkenness on the public highways is declared to be a misdemeanor. Boys, when you get on a "high lonesome" from now on you will have to stay "out" of the middle of the road. It is rather surprising that a majority of the General Assembly did not vote to exempt themselves from the operation of this law. They voted to prohibit the judiciary of the state from accepting free passes, but refused to pass the bill prohibiting themselves from accepting them.—Marietta Courier.

Men Who Kill a Town.

Lincoln Republican: The following, clipped from an exchange, contains some stubborn facts that cannot be denied. A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery.

Any citizen who will do nothing for his town, furnishes the coffin.

The man who is so selfish as to have no time from business to give to the city affairs, is making the shroud.

The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse.

The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise, throws bouquets on the grave.

The man who is so stingy and selfish as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral sermon and sings the doxology. And thus the town lies buried, free from all sorrow and care.

It is like a gentleman remarked the other day. If all that Clark Howell and Hoke Smith have said about each other is true neither one is fit to be governor. And if they have lied they ought not to have the place.

A million bushels of grain was destroyed by fire in Chicago last Saturday.

A mob of 3,500 persons burned a negro in Texas last week. The same old story.

In the death of Chief Justice T. J. Simmons, Georgia has lost another great man.

Prof. R. Byers, who was graduated at the college here last year, is now teaching at Morganton, Ga.

Hall county's tax rate this year is only 61 cents on the hundred. Yet her roads are worked by taxation.

Bro. Burd, who has been publishing the Cherokee Advance for a few months, bids it farewell and Mr. B. F. Perry takes charge again.

Two negroes were sent up to the gang from Cobb county last week six months for vagrancy. This should be a warning to all idle people.

Four car loads of powder exploded at the Rand powder works last Saturday in Pennsylvania, killing five men and injuring several others.

There is said to be, or have been, thirty-one blind tigers in Gainesville doing business under U. S. license. This does pretty well for a dry town.

It has been decided to levy three cents on each bale of cotton belonging to members of the Cotton Association in order to further work of the organization.

Vicksburg Miss., is determined to stamp out the yellow fever before it gets much hold if possible. One hundred thousand pounds of sulphur were burned in the city one day last week.

The Japs have had hot times rioting in Tokio in connection with the treaty of peace. A mass meeting was held declaring that the nation is humiliated by the terms. Five hundred were wounded in the riot.

Dawson county is well represented at the N. G. A. College, Dahlonega, this session. From Dawsonville there are Miss Emma Elliott, Roscoe Tucker and Lee Anderson; Laurel, John Black; Palmour, John McClure; Bright, two sons and a daughter of R. A. Elliott.—Advertiser.

The Legislature at its last session passed a bill requiring all counties to be cut up into school districts approximating 16 square miles. Under this act it will be the duty of the board of education of each county within thirty days or as soon thereafter as possible to proceed to lay out the county into school districts.

W. R. Power, a Georgia school teacher, spent the last cent for a postal card and wrote to the school commissioner of Cobb county to please send him what he was due him for teaching. The result is the man was at once arrested by the U. S. authorities and placed in jail at Chattanooga. It being a violation of law to "dun" a person on a postal card.

The Georgia board of health has ordered a quarantine against all infected fever points in the United States, causing the health board and mayor of Atlanta to kick, and it seems that the state board has no way to enforce its supposed authority when the officials of a city or town oppose it. The U. S. government noting wish to take any chances of the yellow fever spreading, has ordered that no through passengers to Atlanta from infected districts, be allowed to stop at Richmond and other points under six days.

Mt. Lebanon Baptizing.

Mt. Lebanon church is still divided in Union county. The Abercrombie faction is on one side and the Nelson faction on the other. The first faction holds services in a dwelling instructed by Rev. J. B. Stover, and the last holds forth in a school house, preached to by Rev. J. J. Gilreath, who was turned out of the church by the Abercrombie side. The church was burned by some unknown person since this trouble arose. Last Sunday both sides had a baptizing. Preacher Gilreath dipped eleven converts first. Then preacher Stover, after being refused permission of baptizing at the same place, went to another hole in the creek and immersed one little girl, a schoolmate to some of the other converts. Mr. Abercrombie and his wife were returned to the grand jury some time ago by the Nelson side, charging them with disturbing divine service, both of whom will be tried at the next term of Union Superior Court, about two weeks off. The Abercrombie side has been recognized by the association, and yet the troubled waters cannot be stilled. They will keep up this trouble, if they don't mind, until both sides will be unrecognized by any religious denomination and each faction will be thrown out into the world like country editors and be compelled to travel along the narrow path of life with all kinds of pests trying to blockade the way.

Some of Gainesville's Tigers Trapped.

The police of Gainesville made a very successful raid on several of the blind tigers of that city last week. They visited the residences and places of business of Henry Towery, Charlie McDonald, Tom Cooper, a man named Brown, a negro woman called Wimpy and two other persons places of abode whose names we cannot remember now, with a search warrant where quite a quantity of beer and whiskey showed up, stuck about under counters and in trunks, all of which was carried to a room and locked up until court convenes. Then it will be brought out and shown the court the kind of wet things that are used in a dry town. In the round the police visited one place and searched every nook and corner without finding anything. Chief of Police Harbison espied a big trunk. It was locked. After raising one end up and finding it very heavy he asked the lady of the house what was in the trunk and she replied clothes. Then the key was called for. The woman said her husband had the key who was off at work. The chief sent a policeman to the husband for the key. The husband sent back word back that his wife had it. The chief then substituted a crowbar for a key and when raising the lid found a fine assortment of beer and whiskey. This mistake on the part of this sister may cause her to lose her church membership. It is said that the last grand jury of Hall examined fifty or seventy-five witnesses against the blind tigers of Gainesville but none of them knew anything, or wouldn't swear it. So the city authorities decided to try the search warrant plan and it worked like a charm.

LABOR FOR THE SOUTH.

The Railroads Will Try to Relieve the Scarcity.

Several years ago, the State of Georgia appropriated $10,000 for an immigration department. A representative was sent to Europe to interest the people to come to this country. He was a German and he introduced his sister-in-law to come over. She settled in Atlanta, married here and had one child. These two additions to Georgia's population were the total results of the State's $10,000 experiment.

The railroads, however, have been working systematically for years to bring in new settlers and fresh capital. They have directed their efforts chiefly to the work of interesting the thrifty farmers and mechanics of the west and they have located thousands of them in the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and other southern states. They are now planning to get immigrants direct from Europe for the southern farms, mills, factories and furnaces. In many sections, labor is so scarce that the farmers cannot get enough help to properly till their lands.

Hon. Ross C. Smith, Commissioner of Alabama's Immigration and Industrial Association who was in Atlanta last week, stated that the prospects were very encouraging. "There is not anything like the shortage of labor in the west that there is in the south." He said. "This is largely because the Western roads have been taking hundreds of thousands of immigrants direct to the west in years past. Our Southern roads realize that the situation is growing desperate here in the south and they intend to make a strong effort to draw a good class of foreigners into this territory."

"One of the best effects that an influx of good white labor to the south will accomplish, will be to stimulate the negro and make him work more regularly. As long as the negro knows that there are two jobs for every man that wants to work, the more he is inclined to loaf and idle away his time. Then again the negro's proper place is in the cotton and corn field, and away from the towns and cities. He is decidedly more peaceful and a better citizen on the farms than he is elsewhere. While many of the foreigners are good hands in the fields, they cannot handle the mule and are not as satisfactory for farm work as the negro."

"I believe that by next spring there will be a big stream of white foreign labor coming into the south."

Three hundred and seventy persons were killed by an earthquake in Italy the other morning.

Another route will be asked for up by the camp ground and back by Mr. Joe Edwards. We understand that there is a counter petition being signed by a few against the establishment of one of these routes. What a foolish act! Who ever heard of a set of people being opposed to convenient mails and the expenditure of government money in a section before when it helps everybody? Foreign nations, where missionaries are being sent, would have better judgment than this.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,
JOEL T. MILLER.

Very encouraging news for THE NUGGET came over from Union county last week. It was a letter containing the money for two subscriptions for a year, saying that they all liked the paper over there and more aimed to take it because it spoke out, and heaved to the line, matters not where the chips fall. Thanks.

Somebody will have to be fined for driving up on the sidewalks before it is stopped entirely. Some people will run the risk of being fined just to save a little trouble. It ought to be enforced to the letter. It costs too much money to fix sidewalks and then allow them to be cut up by wagons. People should have more pride about them than to do this even if it wasn't against the law to drive on them.

Our friend, Mr. W. H. Reid, of Yahoola district, raises his own tobacco and it is fine. He now has a couple of twists at his house about twenty feet long. In making these twists he keeps working in tobacco until he gets as long as he wants it. Then he cuts it up and fills a small box with the tobacco and adds a little honey, and in this way has as sweet and nice tasted tobacco as any you can purchase in stores.

It is quite likely that Barlow Davis, of Auraria, will have some business in court at its next session, as we understand that on Sunday night week he shot his pistol in the Baptist church yard of that place while services were being held there, and went off down the road discharging his little gun. It is said that he has since left out and is now at Ducktown, Tenn. But when the grand jury and solicitor general fix up the proper papers Sheriff Davis will cause Davis' return.

The attendance at the college still increases. Students arriving daily. This is a great institution. It is built upon a hill and throws out its light of knowledge to the boys and girls of the entire state, with open doors inviting them to come. It is no new institution, but was established thirty-three years ago and has been attended by thousands of Georgians sons and daughters. Matters not how many high schools and colleges are established in the S. G. A. C. is always largely attended.

If you are in need of some beautiful dry goods Bruce has them.

Remember that there is a tax due on all dogs brought into Dahlgren, at the expiration of ten days.

The Signal will be moved into Dr. Stows building at the foot bridge on College Street, so we learn.

Mr. Breyma, president of the Standard Gold Mining Co., arrived here last week, accompanied by his wife.

Subscribers desiring their addresses changed will please write the office plainly so as to save any mistakes.

If you need a two-horse wagon, call on A. J. Anderson, Wier, Ga. They are made from home growth timber and ready for hard service.

If you want one of the prettiest clocks in town cheap, G. McGuire can fit you up. He will also sell you a good fountain pen for thirty cents.

Mr. Ernest Boone, of Gainesville, Ga., proposes to supply everything that is electrical and will do all kinds of work in this line. See his card in this issue.

Capt. Williams, who has been appointed commandant of the college cadets here, will be on hand now in a few days, ready to commence discharging his duties.

The real estate transfers made in Lumpkin county within the past few weeks, will be found elsewhere in this issue. Among them is some very valuable mineral property.

At a meeting of Board of Trustees of the N. G. A. College, held Sept. 18, 1905, Miss Anno Worley was unanimously elected College Librarian vice Mrs. C. W. Steed, resigned.

G. McGuire, the jeweler, has just received a big line of spectacles and is ready to fit up all weak eyed persons with exactly the kind of glasses they need, as well as those whose eyesight is failing.

Some of Lumpkin county's officers are making such efficient officials that we have no idea that they will have any opponents in the next campaign. If they do it will not amount to anything.

Mrs. Blake, of White county, is thinking of moving to Dahlgren and opening out the Consolidated hotel to the public. This is an up to date building and one of the most desirable places in Dahlgren.

They all like THE NUGGET. Mr. J. W. Proctor, of Burtlesboro, in renewing his subscription last week writes as follows: "Enclosed find one dollar and keep enclosing her in. I am lonesome without it."

The crop of corn raised on the college farm this year is the finest it has ever produced yet, as will be seen by the display at R. R. Meaders & Sons store. The ears raised on this red, rocky soil measure twelve inches long.

The other day while Mrs. Dolin Beck was gathering tomatoes out at Guley Townsends a big rattlesnake pit was discovered coiled near her, just in the act of striking. She jumped out of the way and Guley's dog was bitten before the snake could be killed. This makes two dogs Guley has had bitten out there in his yard by pitons within the past few weeks. Snakes are bad company.

The following property bargained for by the Consolidated Co. in this county, from Capt. F. W. Hall, deceased, has diverted back into the hands of the Hall estate, the company having failed or refused to pay for it when the time was up. Dahlgren property: The Hall residence, Hall's Villa, store house, Gaddis house, Hope house, Clarke house, Cook house, in fact all the property last bargained for by the company, including the following mines: Lockhart, Chestate, Ivey, Bast and Fish Trap. Capt. Ingersoll is agent for all this property.

After a few days' visit to Atlanta, Mr. T. S. Littlefield returned on Sunday.

Messrs. Breyma and Bainbridge and their wives spent last Sunday up in White county.

Mr. Henley Wimpy is thinking of moving to Oklahoma or Kansas latter part of this year.

The cemetery here has been cleaned off nicely and presents a much better appearance.

If you have anything to sell remember that THE NUGGET is a good advertising medium.

Wanted at once a good milk cow with young calf.

COLLEGE DORMITORY.

Prof. Saddle, the coach for the college football team, is causing the boys to get a move on them.

When you get out of type writer paper, either short or long, and can't find it any where else, call at THE NUGGET office.

Mrs. Powell has returned from Gainesville to take advantage of the inducement offered by the N. G. A. College, and will enter several of her relatives. She occupies the Price house on Park street.

Mr. Geo. Edwards, of Dahlgren, attended the funeral of Rev. Benj. Allen, his grand-father, up at Cleveland, Ga., last Sunday. Mr. Allen was 85 years of age and was buried by the Masonic fraternity.

Patrons of the college and school must bear in mind that the time for swapping old books for new ones has expired. The book company only agreed to do this twelve months from the time its books were adopted here.

Mr. Walter McEwen, who is now located at Dawsonville in the interest of the Rowland Lumber Co., was in Dahlgren the latter part of last week. Although Mr. McEwen is an aged gentleman he is almost as supple as a sixteen-year-old boy and is a hustler. He is sociable and clever, enjoying us to always feel proud when he comes to town.

That Kansas crowd had a big time while down at the Briar Patch last week. During the day they looked over the property and at night passed off the time pleasantly at the Club House in various ways. One night a fiddle and a banjo picker were called in and the strains of music were so good that many of them were soon up on the floor dancing. One gentleman had not danced any in three years but the Georgia fiddler soon brought him to his feet and the way he cut the pigeon's wing was interesting and enjoyed by all.

We heard first of the week that Mr. Joe Swancy, who was supposed to be shot by James Lingerfelt last week, was better and able to sit up. Just after learning this we saw a letter from Mr. Swancy's son, who stated that he could not see any change in the condition of his father. The wounded man would no doubt have been dead now had it not been for a lot of meal sacks he carried on his shoulder at the time the gun fired. He had several in one and the ball passed through 36 doubles before it entered his body.

Our friend, Mr. J. C. Stargel, one of the best farmers of Lumpkin county, who resides in the far edge of the eastern portion of the county, was in Dahlgren last Tuesday. A rural free mail delivery has been established from Hall county through his section on up into White county, and Mr. Stargel being an enterprising man, is perfectly delighted with the convenience. A letter can be mailed in the morning from Atlanta and he or any one else along the entire route can get it that afternoon. And the extra cost for a box, which some dull headed persons, who never take a paper nor care to hear from anybody, grumble about, amounts to nothing. Very often neighbors will buy a box at not more than ten cents each.

Baptizing next Sunday at Yahoola at 10.

Mr. Ashley is now a citizen of Dahlgren.

Mr. Wash Satterfield has moved down to Auraria.

Eggs retailed here at 20 cents a dozen this week.

Mr. Gordon Rice is building him a house.

Mr. J. F. Prewitt is studying law under Col. Lilly.

Mrs. Floy Townsend leaves for Villa Rica next Monday.

About all the vacant houses in Dahlgren are filled now.

Mr. Tom Tate has returned to Atlanta to resume his work.

Willie Reese was up a short while from Atlanta last week.

Georgia has borrowed $50,000 at 2 per cent until taxes are paid.

Money is being raised to build a church near Ashley school house. Fodder sold as low as one dollar per hundred in Dahlgren last week.

The rain of Monday afternoon caught much of the farmer's fodder down.

Mr. C. B. Fletcher and Lilly L. Denton were married last Sunday in Mill Creek district.

Mrs. J. M. Bearden, of Randa, is off on a visit to relatives in Gainesville and Atlanta.

The bridge across Yahoola creek on the Clarksville road was repaired last week and is now safe and sound.

Mr. W. H. W. Gurley, of Gadsdenville, Ga., and Mr. A. J. Gurley, of Murphy, N. C., were here this week.

Let the country people bring in their produce now. There is a demand for it in Dahlgren at a good price.

Mr. John Marlow has sold his farm to Mr. J. Williams, and will move to Logansville about the middle of next month.

Mr. Jess McDonald, Jr., was wedded to Miss Clara Satterfield, a daughter of Mr. Wash Satterfield, of Auraria, last Monday night.

Rev. Mr. Blackburn is running a protracted meeting at Ashley. Several persons have joined the church and will be baptized next Sunday.

Joe Davis may lose the sight of one eye, caused by a rock falling 90 feet and striking him in it while he was at work in Crown Mountain shaft this week.

Dr. Crawford, the well known dentist, will be here by the first of October. All persons having any work they wish done in first-class style should wait till he comes.

Some of our merchants keep cigarette papers where boys can get to them. This is a violation of the law, and judging from what we have heard, some of them will be prosecuted at the next sitting of the grand jury if they do not stop it.

A message was received here last Wednesday, bringing the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Geo. W. Stumon at McCays, Tenn., occurring that morning. Mrs. Stumon was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDonald, and a sister to Mrs. W. W. Crismon of this place.

Last Tuesday the vehicle in which two school boys were riding to Dahlgren in, broke down near Auraria, or the horses gave out, and they made the rest of the way in an ox wagon. We think that it was the Maddox boys, who like Dahlgren and her girls and are willing to come any way in order to get here.

Rev. J. E. Blackburn returned from Dawson county last Monday where he had been assisting in a meeting at Harmony church. It only lasted one week but great good was accomplished. Mr. Blackburn assisted Rev. V. A. Higgins in baptizing fifteen on last Sunday. Fifty joined by experience and letter.

There will be a box supper at Concord church on Saturday night the 23rd inst. The proceeds of which will be used to purchase sash and doors for the church. Everybody invited.

One fellow, who is opposed to prosperity, said the other day that he didn't want a rural route because people had to give a dollar for a box. It might be well enough for people to know that he never writes any, because he is too stingy to buy a postage stamp. We are very sorry that we have any such people in our county. We understand that no longer than last Sunday this man, although his name is in the grand jury box and supposed to be upright and an intelligent citizen, bought liquor and made some men drunk in order to get them to sign his petition. Just think of a man in this position preferring to give $1.25 for a gallon of liquor to make men drunk, degraded and violate the law on Sunday and cause them to do a thing against an enterprise that would brighten up their intelligence, make them wise and prosperous. If this man ever had any intelligence this act alone has proven that he has lost it.

Mining News.

The Lockhart keeps steadily in motion.

Everything is moving along nicely down at the Barlow and the veins continue good.

Mr. W. J. Hightower got his contract of tubing for the Briar Patch Co. finished up last week.

Everything is being gotten in readiness to start up the chlorination plant at the Hand at an early day.

The miners down at the Hand are pleased with their work. The gold can be observed in the floating ore as it is being handled with the giant.

Judge W. W. Murray, of Huntington, Tenn., and Col. Sharp, of Atlanta, arrived in our city last Tuesday. Both of these gentlemen have an interest in some of the mines here.

Mr. Tom Tate is now wearing a fine scarf pin weighing six pennyweights and a half, the gold of which came from a vein out on Cavender's creek last week, being just half the piece found. The gold is sticking to the quartz and presents a beautiful appearance.

The work on the Battle Branch ditch is progressing nicely. They already have the old part cleaned out and are now at work cutting the new and it will probably take about a month to complete it. The hands are paid off every Saturday night, which makes them cheerful and full of energy.

Mr. C. H. Post of York, Nebraska, one of the directors of the Bunker Hill Gold Mining Co., was down this week looking after his interest. He was accompanied by Mr. Newcomer, who was well pleased with what he saw in reference to mining and made himself interested in Bunker Hill.

Although the work in the shaft at Crown Mountain is being run day and night but little headway is being made, as they only pump at night and drill during the day this week. Blasting a perpendicular square hole eight by sixteen feet down through solid rock is a very slow and expensive business. We are told that it is several feet larger than any found in the west.

Mr. Craig R. Arnold, president of the Southern Power and Milling Co., is now comfortably located in Dahlgren, being a more central point for his work than heretofore and he is on the go every day from first one mine and then the other, seeing that things are moving along all right. This Company owns a large territory of valuable mineral property in this section and expects to move out on a still larger scale in the near future.

Mr. Lew Christy is in charge of the Garnet Mining Co's property in this county, who looks after it and endeavors to keep intruders off of it. Some times he carries along his pan and shovel and prospects. The other day he made a test from some rocks sticking out of the ground and found gold in them. After going down a few feet his shovel struck a long rock. It was so full of gold that it bent over the point of his shovel. This rock was supposed to contain eight or ten dollars worth of gold.

Mr. Joseph B. Gumbes, Assistant Engineer of the West Georgia & Seashore Railroad, Camden, N. J., is visiting Mr. Craig R. Arnold of this city. Mr. Jos. A. Otto, of California, is also a visitor, and with the above is taking in the sights and mines in this section. They have visited the Turkey Hill and Etowah mines, controlled by the Southern Power & Milling Co., and have left for the Arnold Long mines where a clean up will be made for the purpose of showing up this rich property. Both gentlemen are well pleased with the opportunities of this mining country.

"Why don't you go to the mines when men make a visit and give both men and mines a write up and get subscribers and charge for your article?" was the question that was asked us the other day. We never nose into people's business like beggars in order to get a dollar. We take it for granted that these men come to see the mines and care nothing about the presence of editors. They have plenty of them at home. If they don't know where we stay. We don't go much on these big "write ups." We have never read one yet that was clear of falsehoods. Besides this, "write ups" are like religion gotten during an excitement or at camp meetings, it doesn't last long and has a bad effect and injures the cause. We go quietly along and give the mining news unvarnished, let it be good or bad, every week. Now, if any body not taking THE NUGGET wishes the news of the mines correctly we would be glad to send them this paper 13 months for $1.00. We own no interest in any of the mines, which enables us to be perfectly impartial. Each and every investor here has our best wishes for success, matters not where he resides, be it in the north, south, east or west.

The Dahlgren gold diggings are attracting increased interest every day. Scarcely a week passes but what we find capitalists in this section inspecting the gold fields. But the biggest crowd that ever came here at one time arrived last week and spent two days at the Briar Patch and Calhoun mines, containing several hundred acres of valuable placer, vein and dredge diggings, belonging to the Dahlgren Gold Mining and Milling Co. The gentlemen numbered fifty-one. They were from Johnson county, Kansas, and were in charge of Mr. W. I. Rush. The names of the gentlemen accompanying him are as follows: E. Dano, S. B. Marshall, L. G. Shaffer, W. Dryden, Dr. P. A. Persons, David Hignett, Ross Miller, J. A. Foster, W. M. Adams, S. B. Hogue, W. C. Marks, P. H. Holmbeck, J. A. Elder, Harry Bradshaw, John Drury, O. W. Rhappart, G. B. Tillotson, F. L. Liger, W. R. Wildon, W. H. Hensen, Ted Schermephor, Manrice Harrington, Joe Dever, A. B. Diller, J. P. Hastings, Joe H. Hibsder, S. E. Rice, W. A. Ricewell, T. D. Allen, W. A. Starr, W. H. McCann, George King, J. Peterson, John Hyde, Bert Hodges, G. L. Morrow, H. N. Devillis, F. McCarty, J. R. Secret, Rame, R. F. Williams, D. M. Evans, W. L. Watron, S. T. Simpson, D. J. Rainey, W. B. Browne, Park Miller, Walter D. Givens, George H. Lacorn, Ole Heboro. This was a good jolly crowd and all enjoyed themselves and we hope that these gentlemen will make it convenient to come again. The gates of Dahlgren are thrown open to them. The reputation of this company's property as being valuable for gold is too well known to receive any comment from us. It shows for itself, and its managers do not ask any one to buy a dollars worth of its stock without first coming and inspecting it. If this is not a fair way to do business we don't know what it takes.

PROGRESSIVE JOY.

Write away.
First day.
Gee,
But it's jolly to be free!
Goodby repulse,
Everything goes.
We'll paint the town red
And not go to bed.
Say, but it's sport
Not to have to report!

Second day.
Hip hooray!
Quite.
A head I had last night,
But the fun
Has just begun.
Feel just like a freckled kid;
Ought to see me raise the lid.
Am I wild?
Watch me, child.

Third day.
Oh, say,
Where
Are all the duds I want to wear?
I have hunted low and high.
For that blasted monkey tie.
Guess I'll stay at home tonight;
Have a letter I must write.
Getting kind o' lonely now
Without any little frau.

One week.
Yes, I'm muck
And long
Suffering 'N, that's not too strong.
But, egad, I'd like to know
Why a woman has to go
Chasing all about the state
Leaving hubby to his fate.
Say, I don't look hardly fair,
But she doesn't seem to care!

Before They Are Hatched.

"This must be
Jenks' first year in the suburbs."
"How do you
Sherlock it?"
"Hear him telling how much money he was going to make from hens."

Knew the Kind.

"Here comes a man who is making $10,000 a month. Want to meet him?"
"Not much. He is liable to try to touch me for $10 before I can get away."

More Appropriate.

"Poor fellow. He is a failure in everything he undertakes, and yet he has a sheepskin from a university."
"It should have been a catskin."

All Her Way.

She was a girl of common sense;
Besides, her cooking was immense.
She was good looking, never cross;
Her pa was rich; she was his boss.
So you might guess it was no trick
For that dear girl to take her pick.

One Strong Point.

"As a poet he has one great advantage over Shakespeare."
"Indeed?"
"Yes, he is still alive."

How Could He Tell?

"Will you love me when I'm old?"
"I will if you are lovable."

When You Can't.

When in doubt, play trumps
And bluff the thing out.
When you have no trumps,
Just remain in doubt.

Talks about The Nugget and Dublin, Ga.

DUBLIN, Ga., Sept. 2, 1905.

ED. NUGGET:
A few thoughts from this part of the "moral vineyard," as it has been quite awhile since I have written anything for your excellent paper, I feel like I want to congratulate you on your splendid paper. I just can't do without it.
I would not miss a single copy for 25 cents. As I have said before,
I am a lifetime subscriber to THE NUGGET.

We like this country fine. Of course there are some disadvantages here, to North Georgia.
Don't have as much fruit here as there. Can't have as good gardens as there. (I mean summer gardens.) It is a good deal hotter here, and the soil is sandy and vegetation burns up. People make meat and bread enough to do them, and plenty of potatoes; and cotton in abundance. This county alone (Laurens) produces about 21,000 bales.

There are about half as many colored people here as whites and they are most all doing well; own fine stock and land, and seem very quiet and submissive. People here are very common and accommodating.

School teaching pays well here.
A first grade teacher gets $45.00 from the public and a supplement of 2 cents per scholar from the patrons, and some of the schools are very large—have to have an assistant, who gets $35 per month from the public. And good teachers are in demand here.

This county is thickly settled, but about 50 or 75 miles below
here land is cheap and the country not settled so thick. But in ten years, to my opinion, S. G. will be settled up, and a fine country to be sure.

Mr. Townsend, I send you $1.75 for THE NUGGET and Semi-Weekly Journal, as that is your clubbing rate I believe. Don't ever erase my name from your book.

Thanking you for past favors,
I remain as ever, a reader of the "Golden" NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA is one of the best Educational Centers in the state. In addition to the Agricultural College we have a well graded public school system.

FREE TO EVERY CHILD

who is a citizen of the town. People who have little children to be educated cannot find a better location. Rents are cheap and the cost of living moderate.
 Why not move here to give your children a nine months school term instead of having a short term of two or three months as you now have? The children who complete the course in the graded school enter college here without additional examination.

It cheap living, low rates and a nine months school absolutely free for your children is not an attractive proposition, where will you find one?

Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, and almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every night and last two or three days. I have never been able to get any relief until I began to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. The same way, I have used them with the same results. I am, I think, cured."—J. A. McMillan, 21 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will relieve you. If it fails to do so, return it for a refund. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Locals.

The place to get your Baptist minutes printed is at THE NUGGET office, where you can get them finished up ready for distribution in a week from the time they are sent in.

We understand the reason one man here is talking against the country, is because he has his eye on certain property here with the intention of buying. Our citizens should watch this and if they find the report to be true none of them should sell him a foot of land.

None of our citizens have to send to Cleveland, Gainesville or Atlanta to have their work done. They patronize THE NUGGET, a home enterprise, which never lets a chance slip in helping Dahlonega every opportunity offered. Accept our thanks, please.

We must say that we have a good lot of subscribers. They not only take and read THE NUGGET but pay for it and we do not have to keep dunning them continually for some editors. There is a way to avoid this. First, by giving patrons the worth of their money. Second, by not trying to make them take a paper they do not want.

Two parties came before the ordinary recently and took advantage of that mean schedule law to keep from paying an honest debt. Why a legislature will pass any such a law we cannot understand, for it has a tendency of causing people to be dishonest by robbing a person before his eyes with no relief. We do not know these two parties names but will publish them if the injured ones will give them to us.

Decatur Orphans Home.

The Mountains like the Cities, often have the Orphans at their doors. Many of these little ones have been blessed by the Decatur Orphans Home. A poor little boy was left by the murder of his mother, as helpless as was possible. Good friends wrote to the Decatur Orphans Home, which said to him, "As no one wants you, we will gladly help you."

Another boy came hobbling helpless into the Home and he is today a blessing to the world. The mountains owe a great debt of gratitude to the world. The mountains owe a great debt of gratitude to the Decatur Orphans Home.

I am glad that nearly all the Orphans Home in Georgia, South Carolina and Alabama, have joined in asking every friend of God and humanity, to give to some of them, the earnings, or wages, or profits of his labor on "Work-day," which comes this year on Saturday, Sept. 23rd.

It is a glad and a reasonable act of love to the unfortunate, that we give one day's toil in cotton field, store, office, shop or home, out of the 300 days a work for ourselves. These gifts, if for the Methodist Home, can be sent through their Sunday School, on Sunday, at their interesting Orphans Home exercises, or the local pastor here.

The Stone Mountain Baptist Association has passed resolutions saying that its churches will not fellowship with liquor dealers.

Hon. Hoke Smith keeps from eight to ten clerks busy all the time sending out literature and attending to correspondence. This expense added to his railroad fare going from town to town will cost him $50,000, says the Marietta Journal.

Constructive or Destructive.

Here are a few remarks, taken from an exchange, which are worth reading:

The making of a town or city or community worth living in depends upon the prevalence of the constructive rather than the destructive spirit among the business people. One is ready to encourage every laudable undertaking, and to lend a good word, if nothing more; the other shakes his head and prophesies failure for every undertaking. One forgets mistakes made by well meaning workers, and always hopes for good results in every enterprise; the other is narrow and jealous of every advance made and refuses to admit that there is any other way of doing things than the old way. One welcomes the stranger, suppresses his intention to be good and gives him all encouragement to remain; the other is self satisfied, ignorant, and frowns upon everything that will break the even tenor of his monotonous way of doing a way that he prefers because, forsooth, he lacks the mental energy to adapt himself to a newer and better way.

Mark the town or city you live in, the people who make it up, measure them by these tests and draw your own conclusions. Measure your self, look keenly into your own motives, your own habits of mind and way of thinking and see where you belong. If you are constructive in spirit, it will make you more broad minded and progressive still; if you are destructive, and have the candor to admit it to your self even, it will help you to get over it. In any case look to your self before looking to your neighbors. Look to your own town before pointing at your neighboring town. It is not for us to class you one way or the other, for it is beyond our power to change you in any way save as we may be able to induce you to look more closely to yourself, and so come to know yourself better. Then you will be able to act for yourself. Therefore think on these things, measure yourself as a business man, as an integral part of the spirit of your community, and see how you stand. That is all we need to ask of you.

Patronize Home Industries.

It is to your interest because it contributes to build up your city and section, says the Memphis Scimitar.

For the same reason patronize every institution and contribute to the success as every influence that makes far better conditions and more rapid growth in your city and section.

From the same intelligent view of one's real self interest comes all manner of civic pride—the good to result to one's self and section of country.

There is no difference between the moral uplift to the people and their material uplift. Each results in the other, or contributes to the development of the other. The moral uplift contributes to the material uplift. The material improvement contributes to the moral improvement.

The men who own the earth today understand and practice this principle.

The men of the greatest success are the men who understand this.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Dr. C. H. A Power for the Farm Mother.

The two sweet words, mother and home, are so interwoven with the earlier years of children, that naturally enough, such contact produces a secret magnetic power. The natural heat, even in a child, is prone to resist; the mother must be discreet, holding fast to the reins when needed, not provoking her children to anger, but to love and good words.

Children should be taught to love and to honor their fathers; to watch and to wait for his coming from the field, and to run and welcome him.

Young children can be made very useful in such little service as bringing father's slippers, the papers, rolling up odd twine or gathering cutting, etc.

Send them clean and tidy to school, and their teachers will respect them. Teach them to learn their lessons conscientiously, and to be bold for the truth. Assist them with their lessons, but impress upon them self-reliance; it will strengthen their characters and fortify their wills.

Seize every opportunity of walking out with them, and deem it a privilege and delight to answer their little questions, joining in their little games, and merry laughs. Thus they will get so intertwined round you that they will confide and lean on you.

Another rural route will start from Murrayville, Ga., Nov. 15th, making No. 2.

It is estimated that this year Georgia cotton yield will fall behind a million bales.

Eena Parks, of Dawson county, was brought in yesterday, charged with illicit distilling.

The negro troops of Georgia, composing five companies, have been disbanded by Gov. Terrell according to an act of the recent legislature.

Blairsville is after the high school proposed by the Notia River Baptist Association. More than a thousand dollars and a ten acre site has already been offered by her citizens.

Many of our contemporaries are always crying out for people to patronize home industries, and at the same time a number of them send to Atlanta for their patent outside instead of patronizing home printers.

The Governor has pardoned Henry Roark, of Hall county, who was serving a life sentence for the murder of Ernest Findley, son of the late W. F. Findley. The pardoning of so many criminals is the reason there are so many murders and lynchings.

Rev. W. F. Robinson died while in the act of praying in the Baptist church at Monroe, Ga., last Sunday. He was too ill to fill his appointment at the Methodist church and went over to hear the Baptist brother preach, where his sudden death occurred.

Associate Justice William H. Fish has been made chief justice of the Supreme court of Georgia to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge T. J. Simmons, and Judge Marcus W. Beck, of Griffin, has been named associate justice to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Fish's promotion.

The commissioner of Internal revenue says that druggists handling patent medicines chiefly made of liquor will have to pay the usual retail liquor dealers license. The names of the medicines have not been given yet, but several prominent and highly advertised medicines will be affected.

Dr. A. J. Cavender of Stobo, will move to Dahlonega the first of the next year. His family has already gone there. The move is made to educate the Doctor's children at the N. G. A. C. The News hopes Dr. Cavender will not remain away from Hall county for he is a most excellent citizen.—Gainesville News.

Another bill will be introduced in the next legislature to make education compulsory in Georgia. The penalty will be to punish the parents who do not send, and not to fine them when their children fail to learn. This will be a good move and we trust that it will pass. The only trouble of its not becoming a law long ago, it includes the negroes, and the legislators in the cotton belt want them to work in the fields.

Postmaster D. Payne Smith, at Murrayville, has this to say about the rural route from Murrayville through Lumpkin county: Our route started Sept. 1st. We now have about 75 boxes on the route, and between 480 and 500 names of patrons enrolled. In the seven trips made by carrier he has delivered 588 pieces and collected 122. We think that pretty fair for a new route. We aim to give the people the very best service we can and ask their co-operation to help us to do so.

Mining Notes.

At the McAfee-Lind they have a nice lot of ore out and will be ready to start the mill by the first of next month.

On Monday, down at the Hand, a nice nugget weighing a penny-weight and eighteen grains was found while Adams, Johnson and Davis were cleaning up.

Mr. John T. Cassidy, of Nashville, Tenn., accompanied by Messrs. J. H. Clayton and F. D. Ridge, from the same city, have been here this week looking after some of the mica deposits of this section.

Mr. Ivey Johnson, of Roland, Iowa, in a letter to us last week, says: "We may come south either to open up mines or see the country and we would be pleased to pay you a visit at your office." Come. Both the door of THE NUGGET office and the gates of Georgia's gold fields are open to you.

The sinking of the shaft down at the Barlow mine continues and the vein holds out good and large. They have a large amount of ore to stop out already and every foot the shaft is sunk gives them much more, being already enough ore in sight to run a long time. Mr. Bainbridge informed us that last weeks clean up was better than he expected.

¶We are reliably informed that Mr. Lew Christy took out 121 pennyweights of gold up on the Gar-net mining property in a little over an hour only a few days ago. This big tract of land is valuable property but has not been operated any for several years. It belonged to Mr. Man, recently deceased, who resided in New York, who would not work it nor let any one else because he was engaged in the invention of a gold saving machine which he expected to use on this property, saying that he did not mean to have the yellow metal unearthed and wasted.

As soon as Mr. Breyman arrived recently from Toledo, he went to work putting in a lower pressure wheel at the Singleton mill belonging to the Standard Gold Mining Co. This will give him ample power to run twenty stamps of the mill regularly both day and night, having only run ten in the past, by the water in the creek. Then the water in the canal will operate the giant and air compressor. The mine paid before this change and the profits will be much greater now. Mr. Breyman says he has two years continuous work, which shows that the Singleton is all right. Two bins will be used to concentrate the ore. Later he will enter the Campbell incline, which is 100 feet deep, and cross cut on the various veins that have been discovered. Since Mr. Breyman has studied the situation and aoudition of things his ideas of mining are very good. He is full of energy and we wish him unbounded success.

John A. Beard, of Hightower district, will be tried for luncacy here on the 3rd of October.

The Atlanta City board of health has been legally enjoined with interfering with the state boards business.

Those indebted to me by note or account, especially for last year, are requested to come forward and settle at once. JOHN H. MOORE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Acts on Nature's Plan.

The most successful medicines are those that aid nature. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on his plan. Take it when you have a cold and it will allay the cough, relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and aid nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. Price, 25 cents. Large size, 50 cents. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

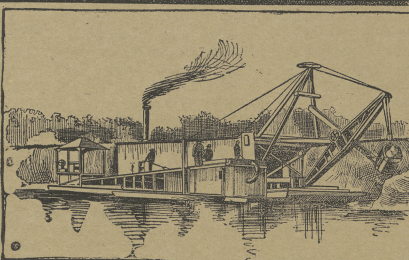

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,
JOEL T. MILLER.

Nation Farmers' Congress Opposes Government Rate-Making.

RICHMOND, September 16.—The growing opposition among shippers and producers everywhere to the fixing of railway rates by government authority, as proposed by the Esch-Townsend bill and similar measures, is indicated by the action of the Farmers' National Congress yesterday at its annual convention here. The congress is made up of representative farmers from every state in the country, the representation from the South and Middle West being especially large.

Last year the congress was in favor of giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix railroad rates and resolutions to this effect were introduced this year and were supported in able speeches by Congressman Adams, of Wisconsin, and others. But the members of the congress were convinced that government regulation of rates, with the consequent fixing of these rates on a distance basis, would mean that they would be compelled to pay more for shipping their products to markets, or that the middlemen would have to pay more, in which case it would come out of the farmers' pockets.

While declaring strongly against rebates and unjust discriminations, and in favor of the enforcement of the existing law on these subjects, the farmers refused to endorse the proposition to give to any government body the power to name the actual rate which a railroad shall charge for the transportation of freight. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

WHEREAS: We favor the effective enforcement by the general government of all existing laws in order to prevent the giving or acceptance of rebates or special favors (through whatever device) to or by favored shippers, and,

WHEREAS: We expect that the Interstate Commerce Commission will aggressively and promptly apply all remedies at their disposal; now, therefore,

RESOLVED: That if the existing laws for the detection and punishment of the giving or acceptance of such rebates or special favors are insufficient or defective in any respect, we favor the enactment of such further legislation as may be necessary adequately to deal with the evil and to prevent such practices in the future.

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (If egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:
1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.
3. Don't boil it too long. (Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving.)
DON'TS: Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.
1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.
2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE. Prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Mrs. Strickland visited Atlanta this week and bought a full supply of fall and winter millinery. Ladies, take notice.

The first cry of fire Saturday night broke up a little love affair, and the woman ran will never be forgotten, as she had the appearance of a short-legged clown.

Mrs. Gussie Newberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaydon, formerly of Lumpkin county, died at Marble Hill, Ga., 1st inst., aged 19.

Adolphus Edwards, residing near Yonah Mountain, was brought in by Marshal Grizzle and tried before Com. Baker, charged with being interested in a still, found near his house last month. He was bound over.

Mr. Wm. Rickett, of this place, received a message this week requesting him to go to Michigan to build a large dredge boat for a company but he has not yet decided whether he will or not. His reputation as being a first-class dredge builder is widely known.

The cases of the revenue violators of this and Dawson counties have been set in the United States court, from the 2nd up to the 20th of October. We would give dates of each but most of these people had rather make liquor than to take a newspaper, and no else seems to care about the trials.

The other day B. R. Meaders & Sons missed a finger ring from their store. Later they were told that it was seen on a young man's finger by the name of Sandy Evans a student who boarded at the dormitory. At first he denied the charge, but afterwards turned the piece of jewelry over to its owners. He left for his home on last Tuesday morning. This is all there is to it.

Several months ago a negro missionary preacher, named Major Doid, from down the country, visited this section in the interest of the poor heathens. He was very fond of being in the presence of females and preached louder and longer when they were on hand, especially a certain one. The result was, he came in a few days ago and carried off one of the sister's daughters to keep out of trouble here, and is likely now on his way to some foreign country.

Mr. Arch Anderson has been engaged in closing out the business of the Cavender's Creek Mercantile Co.'s store for some time. The other day being a little tired, he sat up on the counter to take a short rest, and while in this position fell asleep and dropped off headforemost into an almost empty coffee barrel, where he kicked and yelled until help arrived. This is a new way of advertising, and it is a very attractive way, though had Arch's sweetheart came in at the time of this catastrophe she might have felt a little embarrassed.

Rev. J. M. Austin, of Wahoo, was in Dahlonga last Monday. Though quite old and crippled, Mr. Austin is always lively. He had started up to Shady Grove to help run a meeting, but finding that the farmers up there were not through foddering, and remembering that the bible says there is a time for all things, and this is the time to pull fodder, he returned home to come again when they get through. There is no better revivalist in Georgia than Uncle Nott, and when they get in a tight in the country and want to stir up things, religiously speaking, they always send for Uncle Nott. He is a man who accomplishes a great deal more good than he gets credit for.

Bruce has just opened out a first-class restaurant, where you can get a square meal. In addition to this he has fitted up several nice rooms to accommodate the traveling public. Everything new.

Mr. Breymann, of Toledo, Ohio, who has spent a good deal of his time in Dahlonga for the past few years, is perfectly delighted with our climate. He says that there is none better at this season of the year. Mr. Breymann has his wife with him this time who is enjoying herself very much.

On the first of October I will remove my stock of goods to the stand now occupied by J. E. McGee where I will be glad to meet my old customers with a full supply of everything they need. In addition to a general line of merchandise I will keep on hand a full assortment of coffins and caskets, buggies and wagons, which will be sold at a reasonable price.

T. S. LITTLEFIELD.
The electric lights of late are very unsatisfactory. They frequently go out causing much inconvenience to those depending upon them. It is very embarrassing for a young man to be visiting a young lady and the light goes out, causing them to have to sit for hours in the dark. Let the electrician keep wide awake and gentle the extent so as to be able to give us a system that we can depend upon at all times.

An experiment with cotton in this county has proven that it will grow well even above Dahlonga nearer the Blue Ridge. Mr. Colquitt Head, residing about three miles from Dahlonga, tried it last year and the yield was so satisfactory that he gave it more attention and has sown a fine lot of cotton as will be found any where, opening up nicely, and expects to make three bales. Others should follow Mr. Head's example next year. Cotton will bring the cash at any time and will help out the farmer who cultivates it. There is a great deal of uncultivated land in this county that would produce cotton. Try it.

The ceiling in Mr. J. M. Brooksher's store house caught fire from a large lamp Saturday night which caused some excitement for awhile.

Old man Bill McCroskey, who was sent to the asylum from Lumpkin county a few years ago, died in that institution on the 23th inst.

Mr. J. A. Dockrey, of Gaddistown, Ga., was over looking at some real estate in Dahlonga last Saturday with an eye to making a purchase.

Fall and winter dry goods of every description are being received by J. F. Moore & Co. Also on hand a good lot of chairs and other furniture, mattresses, etc.

Most of our patrons renew their subscriptions to THE NUGGET before they expire. By doing this their names remain unmarked on our list, saving them from losing a single copy.

Our old friend, Uncle "Pick" Gillispie, made THE NUGGET a pleasant call last Monday while in Dahlonga. He has been a patron of this paper nearly ever since we have been in business and it is always a pleasure to us to have a visit from him.

There were two baptizings near Dahlonga—Ashley and Yahoola, last Sunday, which were attended by several of our citizens. Eight at Yahoola and eleven at Ashley. The latter are members of the Dahlonga church until a regular house of worship is built over there. The school house will be used until the church is built and an organization perfected.

Thursday, the 28th inst., is the day fixed by Chairman T. H. Worley and Secretary C. M. Ferguson to clean off Bethlehem and Jones Chapel cemeteries, and they make a request that all parties interested be there by 8 o'clock, a. m. with axes, mattocks, hoes, rakes and saws for the purpose of cleaning off the cemeteries and saving off posts. Every man, woman, boy and girl interested are urged by the committee to be on hand at the time mentioned.

More young ladies have already entered the N. G. A. College here than has attended it at any one session for many years, and the full attendance of both sexes number several more than it did one year ago, and others are still coming. A rule has been adopted this session which will prove of much benefit to each student and cause all to get a hustle on them. If any fail to come up all right with their studies their teacher helps them so they can keep up every day and not get behind.

Out at the colored Methodist church they got up a new plan last Sunday night to raise money for the preacher, being a contest between two negro women—one very black and the other a light yellow, who stood up on either side of a table in front of the pulpit, the yellow woman wearing a rose on her bosom. After all contributions had been made the money was counted and the contest resulted in favor of the yellow woman by thirteen cents. This shows how well roses are appreciated properly adjusted. The contest was witnessed by both white and black.

Mr. Eastwood Satterfield has bought the John Marlow place.

Very often items are sent in just after we have gone to press, which prevents their appearance, and are generally too old for the next issue.

It is said that Presiding Elder Cook preached a splendid sermon at the Methodist church here last Sunday. He brought in no side issue and his sermon was listened to with much interest.

The property that has gone back into the hands of the Hall estate was contracted for by the Syndicate and not the Consolidated Co., as stated last week. The Consolidated paid for all its property. The death of one of the members of the Syndicate interfered with its trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Riddell, after spending several weeks with their son, Mr. N. P. Riddell, at Auraria, Ga., left for their western home Wednesday who have our best wishes for their safe return. Mr. Riddell is well pleased with our climate, as well as the mines of this section.

Mr. Frank Wimpy had a dog bitten by a pilot up in Cane Creek district the other day. He drenched it with corn whiskey and the remedy proved to be a good one. But when the dog got enough to make it drunk it did not act the fool as bad as some intoxicated men that we have seen.

Last week we received an order at noon for a lot of letterheads and envelopes, for a Gaddistown business man. The printing was done and started to him by the next day noon mail. This is the way we do business, enabling country people to get their work completed about as quick as if they resided in town.

There are persons in Dahlonga who always attend negro religious meetings and frequently contribute money who never give any of the white churches a cent. They had rather give a negro a quarter to rear and foam at the mouth and stand on his head in the pulpit than to give their white preacher a copper and hear a good sermon. This shows how people differ in taste.

A certain man in Dahlonga last week buying and drinking eight or ten dollar bottles of Peruna, which almost killed him, is causing some of our citizens to complain because some body is not punished. The peruna ordinance is like the one to keep up the cattle at night, never enforced and is not worth the paper it is written on. Both ought to be repealed.

Petitions asking for the establishment of the Yahoola and Cooper Gap rural free mail routes in this county, have been sent off, containing more petitioners than the department requires. Some of the postmasters along one of these routes, whose offices would be abolished, signed them. One didn't but said that he would not sign a word against it. This shows public spirit.

Many negroes were here from Hall and other parts of the country last Sunday to hear the funeral of one of the departed sisters preached. Yet two of them were pretty mellow with old corn all behaved themselves, and those drinking seemed to enjoy the funeral, as most all persons under the influence of liquor have tender hearts as long as they can keep up steam. That night about 11 o'clock one of the sisters and her husband had a big quarrel. And later at 12 the marshal heard some one choke a chicken off the roost in the Boyd lot, but the thief got away before the officer could get him. Later a colored sister told a negro man's fortune, saying that he recently carried another one of the sisters 50 cents worth of meat at eight, who was gone at the time and the brother hid it under the house, and when he went back a neighbors dog had devoured the meat. All these things occurred in less than a week.

Judge F. W. Lucas, who married Miss Martha Singleton in Dahlonga years ago, died suddenly in Athens last Saturday.

A telegram from Capt. E. J. Williams, the new commandant of cadets here, states that he will arrive in Dahlonga next Sunday.

Our merchants, who are selling smoking tobacco, are doubtless unaware that they are violating a state law. Col. Charters tells us that thirteen bills were returned by the last grand jury of Habersham county for this offense, all of whom entered a plea of guilty and were fined $10 each. They didn't know that they were violating the law, but they know it now. One of these men had not sold any tobacco in nineteen months but he didn't escape being fined.

Auraria Items.

Fodder pulling is the order of the day with our farmers now. Mrs. Emma Smith, of Ala., arrived in our little town a few days ago, on a visit with relatives.

Mr. Louis Strauss, after being away for some time, has returned. Mrs. Summerour, of Americola, is on a visit here with the family of her son, Mr. J. H. Summerour.

On the night of the 10th of Oct., which will be the last day of our school, Miss Holmes, the teacher, will give a box supper, the proceeds of which will go toward the purchasing of an organ for the Baptist church. Let everybody that can, come out and help us make this a profitable, as well as an enjoyable occasion.

C. E. Hutchesson spent last Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Freda.

There will be an all-day singing at the Baptist church next Sunday. Everybody, especially the singers, are invited to come.

Rev. Mr. Smith filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church here last Sunday. Success to THE NUGGET. May it continue to prosper.

The Great Revival.

The past three weeks have witnessed some of the greatest scenes of my life in revival work. Never before have I seen so much earnestness among christian people for the salvation of sinners around them. All christians seem to be working shoulder to shoulder for the one common cause. The wave of 1859 is approaching again, and people all over this country are realizing the power of the holy spirit.

Three weeks ago I held a week's meeting at Ashley. Then I went to Harmony church in Dawson county, where, with other brethren, I engaged in a gracious revival. Never before have I seen such results of a week's meeting. The holy spirit was present throughout the whole meeting. At the close, fifty united with the church by letter and experience.

Then I returned to Ashley and began the continuation of the revival of three weeks ago.

The results are certainly encouraging. Last Sunday I baptized eleven, and there are others to be baptized next Sunday.

For all those who are in favor of home missions, there is an opportunity to help. The good brethren at Ashley are raising money to build a church house, which, it is hoped, will be begun shortly. Ashley is three miles from Dahlonga, and these nearby Macedonians are crying for help. Will you be one to help them?

Porter Springs News.

A lynx up in this section is all the excitement now. A number of persons have made a raid on it but it always escapes them back. The McDonald boys and Charlie Whitner tried it the other night again but it put them to flight as it did before. They recruited with Uncle Alfred Herington and came very near getting caught. Alfred says he shot in right where it was and it only made it madder, and he saw it jump from one pine tree to another, thirty feet. Another fellow saw it in the day time and heard it howl, scaring him so that he ran until he was out of breath.

Well, the preacher pensioner is so hot under the collar that he says he is going to whip Mart Duckett for writing you about his pension and watch, also stating that an editor who will publish such things is no account, and THE NUGGET is not fit to go in a decent house. Now, you are right brother. It never was, and to go in a man's house who let his mother and sister go to the poor house when this man had ample means to support both. If this so called preacher had given the $19 paid for this watch, to ward supporting his old gray headed mother people would have thought more of him today. A man who is too busy to go and see his mother buried is not much.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.—We don't wonder at some so-called preachers being in the chain gang, and there are others who have layed themselves liable. A man who does not try to save his mother and sister from the poor house will not do much in the way of saving souls from torment, but on the other hand make a better agent for the devil. If the brother has been misrepresented the columns of this paper are open to him free of charge to set himself right before the people. Usually when a man gets mad at another if he in the instructions of the bible are carried out, he prays for the enemy. But in this case we do not want this man's, because we feel like if he tried to pray for us that his prayer would not be heard higher than one of those corp stalks growing in his field which he swore that he did not own in order to draw a pension.

Arizona Whiskey.

The following is a partial list of the varieties of whiskey now in stock in Tombstone:

Common whiskey, the kind that killed father at the tender age of 93.

Sporting whiskey, the kind that makes the game rich and the player go to the limit.

Business whiskey, the kind that makes the fellow who never had any business in his life hold you up at every corner and submit a $1,000,000 scheme.

Mysterious whiskey, the kind that causes your neighbors to lead you away around behind the Gragon mountains with an air of profound secrecy, then confide something to you that was all over town the day before.

Social whiskey, the kind that causes a man who has known you for ten years and has never spoken to you, to single you out and make a confidant of you.

Knowing whiskey, the kind that swells the absorber thereof until the wise guy Solomon is on the bun.

Roaring whiskey, the kind that suddenly sets the quietest fellow in town to vociferating and swinging his arms in unoffending space.

Fighting whiskey, the kind that gets action on a crowd.

Crying whiskey, the kind that suddenly overcomes its victim with every conceivable species of pathos and makes of him a pitiable spectacle.

Bad whiskey, exceedingly scarce, the kind that makes a man quiet, sullen and dangerous.

Loving whiskey, the sort that causes him to draw near, put his arm around your neck and emit a breath in your face that would drive a turkey buzzard away from a dead coyote.

There are several other varieties in Tombstone, conspicuously honest whiskey, which causes a man to pay his debts when under its influence, and then kick himself about it when he gets sober; then the brand that causes him to do the agreeable to everybody he meets on the streets, then go home and lick his wife until the neighbors interfere.—T o m b s t o n e, (Ariz.) Prospector.

The Boy Who Works.

Do you feel, young fellow, that you have a hard time? Your hours are long. Your task is hard and the wages small. The contents of your weekly pay envelope will scarcely carry you over the week. Sometimes you must wear patched trousers or a frayed coat. Your employer expects a great deal from you. Other fellows dress well and always have money. They have cordial fathers and mothers while you toil six days a week to make a living.

Never mind, young man. You are ahead of the boy who has every luxury at home. You are getting experience that he must get somehow later on. Because, sooner or later, he must fight the real battle of life himself. And you have the advantage. While life has been made easy for him he lacks drill and discipline which every life-soldier must go through. You are preparing yourself. He may go in without preparation and fail.

Work is a great blessing. You cannot see now, but some day you will say that you were fortunate in your boyhood days because you were compelled to work. Because you cannot get power to do things save by doing them. Look over the successful men you know. Get their history. Nearly every one was compelled to work in boyhood. They toughened their muscles by hard work and sharpened their brains by looking out for themselves.

Work makes men. Luck usually fails. Pluck nearly always wins. To succeed in anything one must overcome obstacles. Force and fiber are built by hardships. Grit is as necessary in the making of a man as gumption. Hardships are not always handicaps. Often they are helps. You will understand this better in 20 years. Meantime permit one who has lived that 20 years and more to advise you in this.—Valdosta Times.

A Kentucky editor refuses to publish notice of the deaths of people who, while living, failed to take his paper, giving his pointed reason therefor: "People who do not take the home paper are dead anyway, and their merely passing away is of no particular news value to any one"—Dawson News.

A North Georgia editor gives this definition of a house party "A place where the girls stay up all night and sleep all day; when the mother works all day and all night; and where the father hides in the corner, foots the bills and cusses."

Your Life Current.

The power that gives you life and motion is the nerve force, or nerve fluid, located in the nerve cells of the brain, and sent out through the nerves to the various organs.

If you are tired, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep, have headache, feel stuffy, dull and melancholy, or have neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, periodical pains, indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, or the kidneys and liver are inactive, your life-current is weak.

Power-producing life is needed; something to increase nerve energy—strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is the fuel you need. It feeds the nerves, produces nerve force, and restores vitality.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills I was confined to my bed. I had severe nervous spells, the result of two years illness with malaria. I gradually grew so weak that I was unable to sit up. The spells would commence with cold chills, and I would become weak and almost helpless. My circulation was poor. I had doctored right along but grew weaker and weaker. The Nervine seemed to strengthen me right away and my circulation was better. I have taken it all seven bottles of the Nervine and I feel entirely well."

DAHLONEGA WANTS A RAILROAD.

Five Adjoining Counties Rich With Minerals and Good Fertile Lands Destitute of a Single Railroad.

IMPORTANT TO CAPITALISTS.

The people of Dahlonega and surrounding section want and need railroad connection with the outside world, and if capitalists will give us their attention for a few moments we are satisfied that we will be able to convince them that it will be to their interest to build one from Atlanta or Roswell, Ga., through the counties of Milton, Forsyth, Dawson, Lumpkin and White on to Tallulah Falls. These five counties contain 725,120 acres or 1,233 square miles and no railroad of any kind. The soil is very productive, producing corn, wheat, oats and all kinds of vegetables. Big forests of various kinds of fine timber. Gold, iron, mica and other valuable minerals. With ample water power to run the electric railway and different kinds of factories that would soon spring up with railroad facilities.

Now in order to back our judgment we will quote some statistics from the report of the Commissioner of Agriculture of Georgia, taking it by counties one at a time as follows:

Milton—Area: 157 square miles with an abundance of timber and stone for building purposes. The Chattahoochee flows along its entire southern boundary. Creeks tributary to the Flint and Chattahoochee flow through the county. Lands available to the acre as follows: corn 15 bushels, wheat and oats 10 each, rye and barley 8 each, Irish and sweet potatoes 100 each, field peas 15, ground peas 50, seed cotton 650 pounds, crab grass 4,000, clover hay 3,000, fodder 100, sorghum syrup 100 gallons. Annual production of butter 138,112 pounds. Hogs 3,826. Fowls 63,113. Eggs 81,872 dozens. Honey 13,025 pounds. Good cotton country. 6,407 bales were ginned from the crops of two years according to the U. S. report. Minerals: Mica and granite.

Forsyth—Area 252 square miles. Etowah river flows through its northwestern portion, while the Chattahoochee and one of its branches borders the county on the east and southeast. Tributaries of these rivers water the western and northern sections of the county. The bottom lands are very fertile, and the valley lands produce good crops. Average production to the acre of the lands of this county is as follows: 25 bushels of corn, 25 of oats, 15 of wheat, 15 of barley, 10 of rye, 200 of Irish potatoes and sweet potatoes each, 10 to 15 of field peas, 50 bushels of ground peas, 500 pounds of seed cotton, 400 of crab grass hay, 1,000 to 1,500 of Bermuda grass hay, 6,000 of clover, 100 gallons of syrup. Apples, peaches, pears and plums mature well. So does other fruits. Nearly all the farmers have orchards. Annual production of butter 210,031. Fowls 98,207. Eggs 107,427 dozens. Honey 20,187 pounds. Average annual cotton ginned 7,440 bales. Minerals: Gold and small amounts of silver and copper.

Dawson—Area 209 square miles. Many acres well timbered. The Etowah river flows through the county, and into this empty several tributary creeks. The Amicalola rises in the northwestern part of the county and runs through it in a southeasterly direction, having a fall of several hundred feet. Dawson is in the gold region, and has produced much gold. The forest growth is oak of the various kinds, hickory, cedar, poplar, chestnut, locust, gum, walnut, mountain birch and pine. Average yield per acre: Seed cotton 600 pounds, corn and rye 20, oats 25, wheat 10, Irish potatoes 30, sweet potatoes 75, field peas 10, crab grass 2,000 pounds, sorghum 150 gallons. The best lands yield a great deal more. Tobacco also gives a remunerative yield. Vegetables of all kinds do well. Also apples. Annual wool clip 3,000 pounds. 47,467 fowls. Eggs 60,696 dozens. Butter 102,103 pounds. Honey 13,440 pounds.

Lumpkin—Area 282 square miles. An abundance of timber for manufacturing purposes. This county is watered by the Chatahoochee and Higher rivers and numerous smaller streams. Splendid water power. Some fine bodies of lands are on the rivers and creeks. In the heart of the gold belt where many men are employed daily in digging the yellow metal. Land averages per acre: Corn 28 bushels, oats and rye 18 each, wheat 15, sweet potatoes 45, Irish potatoes 105, field peas 15, crab grass hay 3,000 pounds, sorghum 95 gallons. Cotton also grows well in a portion of the county, and more big white headed cabbage than can be used. Apples, pears, peaches and quinces. Some attention is paid to grasses but most of the farmers depend on the wild pasturage for 8 months of the year. Butter produced annually 70,667 pounds. Fowls 80,453. Eggs 57,631 dozens. Honey 14,444 pounds. Minerals: Gold in nearly every part of the county, iron, soapstone, mica, pyrites, kalin and several other different minerals.

White—Area 243 square miles. An abundance of fine timber and excellent water power. The county is watered by the Chattahoochee and Tennessee rivers and seven different creeks. Fine apples, peaches and other fruits and cabbage grow well here. Land properly cultivated averages to the acre: Corn 25 bushels, oats 20, wheat and rye 15, Irish potatoes 150, sweet potatoes 150, field peas 30, ground peas 50, rice 75, seed cotton 600, crab grass and clover hay each 2,000, herd's grass 3,000, sorghum syrup 100 gallons. Fowls annually 47,796. Butter 85,063 pounds. Honey 10,929. Eggs 55,562 dozens. Original forest about 100,000 acres remain of various kinds of fine timber. Large bodies of excellent lands to be found on the rivers and creeks. Minerals: Gold and asbestos in paying quantities.

According to the very best information obtainable, we mortals pass this way but once, and when we step into the valley of the shadow, all our earthly belongings will be left behind. Why then should men race through life in a mad fight for gold, brushing all the better things aside, when at last it must be unloaded at the tomb? Would it not be better to smile a little and do a few good deeds as we went along than to clutch an almighty dollar until cold death forced us to relinquish it?—New Era.

Each student in the football of the N. G. A. College team here has signed a pledge that he will not smoke cigarettes or drink anything is stimulating. We have always been opposed to foot balls, but if this has the desired effect we want every boy and young man in Georgia to commence playing football.

We wish to thank our many customers for the liberal patronage they have given us in the past and ask a continuation of the same. WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Dr. C. H. Chestate Items.

We are having pretty weather and are saving a lot of fodder.

A certain fellow went to see his son the other Sunday for the first time in life. The son seemed very glad to see him, being the first time. This is a pretty way for parents to treat their children when they only live two or three miles apart.

There were two fellows got pretty full of "mountain dew" the other Sunday night and got up a dispute, which one said he was the best man, and the other said he was, and made at him and they had a nice race for a half mile. So they made friends and thought of the offence of drunkenness on the public highway and made their way to the thicket.

Mr. Can Hulsey was up the other Sunday and spent the day with us. The girls have but one fault to Can. He has a habit of winking his eyes and the girls think he is winking at them. So if Can visits the girls any more he will have to leave off the winking. CITIZEN.

A tick once attached itself to the skin of an elephant and hung there for some days unnoticed by the elephant. Finally it turned loose its hold and fell to the ground, exclaiming, "Good-bye, Mr. Elephant, I've dropped you."

The yellow fever is spreading in Pensacola, Fla.

Sam Jones has been down at Marietta, Ga., stirring up the sinners.

Seventeen hundred and fifty untagged dogs have been killed in Atlanta this summer.

The "Texas Fever," so fatal to cattle, has been located in Coweta and Morgan counties, Georgia.

Gainesville, at last, has decided to pay the highest market price for cotton. Had to do this to get it.

The grand jury of Gwinnett has raised the taxes of that county nearly $200,000, which is causing a kick.

Claud Baxley, a negro, only had to pay a fine of $142.40 for killing another negro in Gwinnett county last winter.

Hon. Tom Bell has a list of the widows of the 9th Congressional district, all of whom he will send garden seeds.

While digging a well at Blairsville, Ga., last week, Juan Ross fell into the well, which was about 60 feet deep and was killed instantly.

Hereafter a census of all Confederate soldiers and widows in Georgia will be taken by the county tax receiver, in accordance with a recent act of the legislature.

A snake was killed near the court house steps of Gainesville last week. It had come to take the place of those recent blind tigers down there. Snakes and tigers are both dangerous.

James Stover was the first person to be fined under the new law in Fulton county last week by being drunk on the public highway. $25 was the amount fixed or three months in the chain gang. Pretty expensive drunk.

Messrs. Frank Meador, J. H. Goss and F. C. Farbes, health officers of Georgia, got into trouble with some negroes at Chattahoochee last week, and the sheriff had to shoot one dead to keep from being killed by the negro with a knife.

Ten suits for damages, amounts ranging from $1,000 to $2,000, have been filed against the Gainesville street railway company, on account of damages alleged to have been sustained by passengers on June 10th, in an accident near the Southern railway station. All the negroes live in Atlanta but one.

In the last two Saturday nights in Atlanta the police have caught 15 negroes gambling. At the last raid they made, one negro jumped from a window in the Club house and was killed by the fall. Four white men were also arrested for gambling at the Kimball. Atlanta seems to be headquarters for gamblers.

Turner Quillian, one of Hall county's most progressive young business men and planters, has secured the contract to furnish the timber to be used in broadening the trestles of the Gainesville Midland railway. This railway, which is now a narrow gauge, will build a broad gauge extension from Jefferson to Athens.

If many more damage suits are filed against the Gainesville Street Railway Co., that city will soon be without a street road. It is a short line and can't stand so many damage suits. If those interested can't make something without having to pay it out to lawyers and claimants they will stop the concern and we don't blame them.

Departure of Rev. W. C. Taylor.

It had been known for a few weeks that Mr. Taylor, the young pastor of the Baptist church here, had concluded to attend the Baptist Seminary at Louisville, Ky., the better to prepare himself for his life's work. He preached his farewell sermons on last Sunday morning and night. The congregations were large, especially at night. When but few if any more could gain admittance, thus attesting, on the part of our citizens generally, their appreciation of his ministerial work here in Dahlonega, for the past twenty months. The church members in Conference on Sunday morning adopted highly complimentary resolutions, showing their love and esteem for him as a man and preacher. During his labors here more than fifty persons, old and young, have been added to the church, which is now, and has been, in perfect peace and harmony. His sermon on Sunday night, which was full of tender thoughts for this people was drawn from Paul's last letter to his Corinthian brethren: "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you." When the sermon was finished, nearly the entire congregation, irrespective of denomination, came forward and gave him the parting hand. The prayers and well wishes of the people here go with this young preacher into future fields of usefulness.

Bowen's Store Robbed.

On Tuesday night the store of Mr. Marion Bowen, at Garland, in the eastern portion of this county, was entered by two thieves, judging from the tracks, who carried off a lot of ready made clothing, shoes, hats, gun shells and other articles likely. The postoffice was kept in the same room but nothing in connection with it was disturbed. They tore off the weatherboarding on one end of the building and bored a hole in the ceiling big enough to enter; got what they wanted and left in the direction of the Crown mountain power plant, having dropped a pair of overalls on the way and a piece of a shirt, which had been torn up to make strings to tie the rest of the goods with. Mr. Bowen lives a short distance from the store and knew nothing about the theft until he opened up next morning. At once he sent a messenger to Murrayville to telephone for our officers, and to Gainesville for Mr. Bud Smith and his blood hounds. U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle, City Marshal Walker, Sheriff Davis and others left at once, and nothing has been heard from them up to going to press.

CAIN-WOODARD.

Prof. A. W. Cain and Miss Nannie Woodard were married Tuesday night in the parlors of the Totty hotel, this city, Rev. J. E. Morgan officiating.

The affair was an exceedingly quiet one in fact the most intimate friends of the high contracting parties knew nothing of it. After the shock of surprise passed off, however, they pulled themselves together sufficiently to offer congratulations and best wishes.

Prof. Cain is principal of our High School and his bride is the daughter of Dr. F. C. Woodard of this city and one of our most accomplished young ladies.

The Messenger joins the entire town in extending congratulations and best wishes, and predicts for them a prosperous and happy voyage o'er life's tempestuous sea.—Grapeland (Tex.) Messenger.

Meaders & Sons Interesting Talk.

In the fall of the year, when you are changing the stock from green to dry food, the stomach needs a stimulant to keep it to overcome the loss of the great amount of soft, sappy, food suddenly cut off.

The above change of food often causes cows to almost dry up their milk.

Weakly chickens need a tonic to help them start on their egg producing business.

Hogs, when they are taken off the pasture and penned up, often will not eat enough to get fat, or the food does not do them much good, with the exercise they get.

Under all of the above conditions of stock, International Stock Food remedies are the best that can be used, we firmly believe. It will prevent hog and chicken cholera. It will help materially to save the cow from going dry. It will cause the horse and colt to eat heartily and assist them to get more benefit from the food eaten. It will kill the worms that cause them to droop and their hair to look rough and dead. The packages are sold at 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $3.50. Kept by B. R. Meaders & Sons.

We can mention several people in and near Dahlonega—not off some 1,000 miles—who will tell you that these remedies are all we claim for them.

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

Put even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

An Italian of New York City received a letter the other day signed "Black Hand," demanding $2,000, and because he did not leave it according to directions at a certain place, a bomb was exploded on his door steps. Many people were thrown from bed in the neighborhood while houses reeled. So if a person has money New York is not a very desirable place for him to be at.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,

Some of the overcoats leave the rocks in the mud while working them. They ought to know better than this and remove them before their attention has to be called to it by Judge Kinney.

Don't forget your city taxes, Councilmen T. A. Smith will receive them up to Saturday night, then Marshal Walker will collect those unpaid at an extra expense of $1.00 for each $1.00.

Col. Lilly, of Dahlonega, will buy any land along the Hiwassee river, or Jones' creek in this county, for the Rowland Lumber Co., or any other elsewhere convenient enough for the timber to be floated or hauled to these streams.

The book for the third quarter of the sanitary taxes closes next Saturday evening. And the marshal requests us to state that he will not look to the tenants for taxes, but to the owners of the property where such persons reside, and that he will not call on them in person, but gives this as the last and only notice.

On the first page you will see some interesting statistics showing why a railroad should be built from Atlanta. It is a longer route than the one that has been talked of from Gainesville, and one which all the citizens of the counties through which it would run want, and no obstacles would be thrown in its way like the Gainesville route.

Major Dodd, the colored missionary preacher, mentioned in last week's issue as leaving out with a young woman a few days ago, was next heard of in Dickens county, where a relative of the woman made her come back. The scamp got out of money and left his horse and buggy he was driving, with some one for ten dollars. He was on his way to Knoxville.

Nice dinners have recently been set for the colored preacher here at the expense of the county, but in justice to Judge Evans we will state that he knows nothing about it. It occurred this way: Rose Eldred, colored, who is partially blind, is kept up by the county, and on two occasions of late, we are informed by a reliable colored person, she has prepared dinner and called in the preacher, and we judge that his family and nurse were also present. He eats Dove Brand hams at home and we suppose that he would not eat elsewhere unless having something as good, if not better.

We were glad to see Capt. F. M. Williams in Dahlonega yesterday from Two Run.

Prof. Stair, who has been teaching in Lumpkin county, has been chosen to take charge of the public school in Dawsonville.

Good sorghum is retailing from the wagons at 90 cents per gallon. No better syrup is made anywhere than by the farmers of Lumpkin county.

If Lumpkin county gets the five rural mail routes wanted by all energetic, wide awake, public spirited citizens, it will bring $9,650 within her borders.

Last Saturday Will Roberts, a student who lives at Jonesboro, Ala., lost half of the middle finger of his left hand by picking at a dynamite cap which he found about one of the mines.

In a recent issue we mentioned that Charlie McDonald had been arrested in Gainesville for running a blind tiger. We wish it to be understood that it is not Mr. C. T. McDonald, of Porter Springs. He is in better business.

News reached here Tuesday that Frank Wheeler, of Hall county, had killed a man named Ward, near his house, eight miles from Gainesville, for reporting him for selling liquor, but we have learned since that he only scored the fellow a few times with an ax about some hay.

Judge Evans has gone down to Atlanta this week to carry all the pension claims of applicants in Lumpkin county, and to get acquainted with the state commissioner of pensions. It is very important for parties transacting as much business with each other as ordinaries and the pension commissioner for them to be personally acquainted.

On the first of October I will remove my stock of goods to the stand now occupied by J. E. McGee, where I will be glad to meet my old customers with a full supply of everything they need. In addition to a general line of merchandise, I will keep on hand a full assortment of coffins and caskets, buggies and wagons, which will be sold at a reasonable price. T. S. LITTLEFIELD.

Dr. Glenn, president of the N. G. A. College, informs us that they had a faculty meeting the other day so as to talk over matters concerning the college and ascertain how the students were all progressing with their studies, and each professor made a good report. Each student keeps up with his studies every day according to the requirements of a recent rule. This is much better than to let them neglect their studies and have a lot of demerits marked against them at the end of each month.

Sister Flossie Harris, col., gave one of her entertainments—walking on class barefooted and imitating the foreign African shout—at the colored Methodist church on Wednesday night with the pastor as manager, said to be the most indecent exhibition ever given in Dahlonega, next thing to the hochee cohee dance. This woman appeared frockless on the table with one of her "breaches" legs much lower than the other, and after grinding a few pieces of glass with her heels she whirled around a few times with her petticoat standing out like a balloon full of gas. The African revival consisted of this woman and a few boys dressed in complete female attire having on bustles the size of nail kegs and stooping over and quacking like a lot of ducks. It is one way the preacher and Flossie raise money for the church—the pastor, as his sermons are worth two cents a dozen—one of the members having become disgusted so that he has recently quit this church and joined the Baptist.

Some letters crowded out.

The first new folder here last week brought $1.00 per hundred.

Prof. A. C. Shuler, a former student of the N. G. A. College, will teach at Bolton next year.

Several of the citizen at and near Auraria have recently lost some of their fattening hogs. Cause unknown.

The present students are the most quiet and orderly set of boys we have ever had here. They all seem to be studying hard and trouble no one.

Eggs are still retailing at seven and a half cents per dozen here, and chickens are very high. The best prices ever known in Dahlonega before.

Mr. Jackson Foster, of Nimblewill district, gathered his corn last week, being the earliest corn gathered in this section that we have heard of this season.

Dr. Howard felt very grateful one day last week when a letter was opened for him which contained a check of fifty dollars, being a gift from one of his brothers.

County Surveyor Jarrard is teaching at the Upper Cane Creek school and any one needing any surveying done while he is engaged can be accommodated by calling on R. M. Bryson, of Dahlonega, his assistant.

The amount paid rural route carriers is some inducement for people to try to get the job. We understand that one of our merchants will stand the examination here as soon as a route is established in this county.

Mr. Jack Castleberry, of Auraria, was up a few days ago, and we understand that he has a notion of purchasing property and locating in Dahlonega. The gates of Dahlonega are always open to new settlers.

Six more persons were baptized over at Ashley last Sunday. During services at the school house we understand that two young men from Dahlonega—one of them drunk—drove up and down by the place of worship during preaching. When country boys come to town drink they generally have to pay for it. That place is not incorporated but the law gives people the right to assemble and worship the Lord without being disturbed and we guess that the matter will be looked into at the next term of Lumpkin Superior court. It is a violation of law now for persons to even get drunk on the public roads.

Mr. D. Payne Smith, Marrysville's well awake postmaster, gave us a pleasant call last Friday. Mr. Smith is a splendid postmaster, discharges his duties according to law and therefore pleases both government and patrons. He is well pleased with the rural route recently established from his office, through Hall, Lumpkin and up into White county. The second route has been established and will go into effect the 15th of next month. It will pass through Albert, in Lumpkin county and down by New Bridge. Both of these offices will be abolished as soon as this route begins, says Mr. Smith.

The public school attendance is now about 100 and more pupils will yet enter. It gives us pleasure to state that nearly all the children in Dahlonega are now reaping the benefits of this most excellent institution. This is what Hon. Alexander Stephens wanted. Many of our citizens doubtless will remember what Mr. Stephens said in one of his speeches in Dahlonega many years ago. He said he "wanted provisions made for every poor child to go to school. Rich parents will send their children. No person ever took the governor's seat with a silver spoon in his mouth." So provisions have been made in the schooling of all children in accordance with the wishes of this great and good man.

Rev. W. T. Dowdy has been elected pastor of Yahoola church for a year.

My coffins and caskets have arrived and I am ready to fill orders. T. S. LITTLEFIELD.

Mrs. W. H. McAfee, of Atlanta, has been on a visit to relations in our city for several days.

Mr. J. E. McGee will occupy the J. M. Brookshire stand, above Anderson & Jones' store for a while.

Mr. Rans Davis brought a load of fine watermelons to town last Monday and they sold like hot cakes.

Solicitor General Charters has been courting over at Hiwassee this week. Next week he goes to Union county court.

John Carroll, col., lectured at the colored Methodist church last Tuesday night. His subject was lying. Being an expert in lying he handled the subject well.

Some of our subscribers on the Gaddistown mail line who have put up boxes, complain of not getting their papers promptly. Let postmasters see that their papers go out.

The number of students enrolled in the N. G. A. College is 170 and yet more to come. Capt. Williams, the commandant, has arrived and is in charge of the military department.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. Chas. T. McDonald, who is doing a mercantile business at Porter Springs and will buy almost everything the farmer produces at the highest market prices.

T. J. Smith & Bro. will give you from 25 to 334 per cent discount on clothing for cash. If you are in need of a suit don't fail to see them before buying. Other merchandise will be sold very cheap for cash.

Hardie Reese and "Dick" McDonald were both caught out visiting last Saturday night after 11 o'clock, resulting in each having to pay a fine. McDonald one and Reese three and cost. The former pled guilty and the latter stood a trial.

Mrs. Strickland desires to call the attention of the people of Dahlonega and surrounding country that she has just returned from Atlanta, where she bought a well selected stock of millinery, dry goods and notions. These goods are now in, ready for the inspection of all. Call and see them. Miss Griffin, of Atlanta, has been engaged to do the trimming, who has arrived and ready to wait on the ladies.

A short time ago, while Mr. Tom Tate, of Dahlonega, was working in the Southern railroad yards in Atlanta, a lot of coal was dumped on him by a negro in the employ of the company, which mashed Mr. Tate up so bad that he has not yet recovered and may never. So last week he went down to Atlanta and employed an attorney, who will begin suit against the company for thirty thousand dollars, so we understand.

Near two years and a half ago there were triplets born in this county, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John Hoster. The mother died, leaving three or four other small children. Not long ago the father gave the children to Mrs. Wm. Allison of this county, and married again and now resides in Hall county, although he is too poor to care for these children. Complaint has been made to Judge Evans, who went up near Porter Springs one day last week to see them, and found the little ones in a bad fix, nearly naked and not enough to eat. Mrs. Allison is very old, as well as poor, and has to crawl a portion of the time, yet she is unwilling to give the children up. Ordinary Evans wrote to the father this week for authority to take care of them by putting them in the Orphan's Home. And if he does not agree to this he will be prosecuted for abandoning them.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Cooper is here putting in what he calls a gold savor at the McAfee Lind Mine.

We expect to have something very important to tell our readers in a few days about the Jumbo mine.

Mr. Bainbridge tells us that he hopes to be able to start up the chlorination plant at the Hand mill next week.

The work of the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co's. property is progressing nicely with satisfactory results. At the Calhoun one lift is operating, and at the Briar Patch two lifts and a dredge are moving right along.

Mr. John Hutcherson, who has charge of the canal work that will furnish water to the Battle Branch mine, is the right man in the right place, being an honest, straight forward man, who knows how to work and will carry it on to the owners best interest.

Mr. Breyman has been busily engaged for several weeks putting in a wheel at the Singleton 'so as to be able to run twenty stamps both day and night, and at the same time has kept ten stamps going one shift. Such management as this is the way to make a gold mine pay.

They have commenced stooping in the Ogle shaft, at the Barlow mine with good results. The sinking of the other shaft still continues. The work in these shafts is profitable from top to bottom as ore has been cut all the way, being different to shafts that are being sunk at other places through hard rock in search of veins.

A patron of curs, residing in Iowa, a stockholder in the Etowah gold mine, writes us this week concerning the property, saying that he would take more stock if he believed it to be a good investment. Replying: Not long ago a company was chartered as the Southern Power and Milling Co., which contracted and bought hundreds of acres of valuable mineral property, including the Etowah Mine and Turkey Hill in Lumpkin county and the Loud Mine in White. The company proposed in its prospectus to erect suitable machinery, employ hundreds of men and do much important work in this section that would be of great interest and benefit to both country and the owners of the mine. So far but little has been done in this direction, doubtless not having time to get things in readiness. The Etowah and Loud are both in operation, and in charge of men of long years of practical mining. Development work is also going on at Turkey Hill with fine results. Now, our acquaintance with Mr. Arnold is very short, though he has been down at the Etowah for some time, and within a few weeks the gentleman has lived in a stones throw of THE NOGGER office. He is very active and on the go all the time. His knowledge of mining operations is unknown to us, but a short time will tell. The property is a good investment if the operations are conducted properly. If not it is worthless. Everything depends upon its management, and surely this company in its selection has made no mistake, as he has the appearance of being a suitable person.

Our office had a pleasant call last Monday from Mr. J. W. P. Allen, of Independence, Mo., and Mr. J. F. Schmeltz, of Kansas City, Mo. The former gentleman is interested in the Bunker Hill Gold Mining Co., and the latter talked like he might soon be. They came down with several other gentlemen last week to look over the property. After telling us how interesting THE NOGGER was to his brother and family he began talking about Bunker Hill. Mr. Allen said that a good deal of development work had been done on the property since he was here last and he was surprised at the results, being far richer than he ever expected, which is also the conclusion of all citizens here acquainted with it. He told us that he resided eight years in Colorado and never saw any property that equalled

Bunker Hill. "If this mine was up there," said Mr. Allen, "you couldn't keep the crowd of men off of it with a Gatling gun." A dredge boat builder was with the gentlemen who looked over Bunker Hill, and, after looking at its dredge, said it was perfect and worked all right. The management of this mine is splendid. Capitalists, or any one else wanting to see the property, are invited to come and look, stay as long as they please, go where they desire and ask any body any questions about it they wish. What more courtesies could be shown visitors?

In reply to two of our subscribers, one at Mercer, Pa., and the other at Brownsboro, Tenn., inquiring about what is being done at Crown Mountain Mine, we will say nothing of any benefit. A majority of the directors becoming dissatisfied with the management because the company was being run in debt, held a meeting about three months ago, and passed a resolution directing the mine to be closed down and a certain amount of 6-inch pipe be sold and the proceeds be used in settling off the labor debts. This pipe and much other has been shipped and sold but most of these debts are still hanging over the mine with laborers liens filed. At the annual meeting Mr. J. C. Rogers, of Columbus, Ohio, was elected president of the company, but not wishing to shoulder the indebtedness made by another man, refused to accept, leaving General Warner still in charge. Although an incline runs right down to the Wallace shaft where, miners say, the ore could be reached again at an expense of fifty or one hundred dollars in cleaning out, several thousand have been expended in cutting a shaft $x16 through solid rock at another place trying to cut this vein, but it has not yet been reached at a depth of about 100 feet. When work was ordered stopped by the directors Gen. Warner and Mr. Merrick, the vice president, decided to have the shaft finished and in eight weeks only nine feet have been cut, and no vein yet, costing from fifty to sixty dollars per foot, and pay day has rolled round and none of the hands have been paid any money yet, receiving nothing for their labor except a few goods from a merchant here, where arrangements had been made. How long this goods business will last we cannot say. Crown Mountain is a good gold mine and would pay properly worked, but a big portion of the mountain would have to be almost pure gold to pay with such management as it has had.

EDITOR OF NUGGET:

It will be a source of gratification to the friends of good order and religion, especially all who are acquainted with the former condition of affairs in the community of the Ashley school house—3 miles south of Dahlonga, to know that a great change for the better has taken place among those people. Notwithstanding the gospel was preached there, in perhaps the first Baptist church built in the county in 1833, for many years there has been no meeting house. Every vestige of a church house has been effaced from the earth, the graves of the departed are only to be seen. The Sabbath was desecrated, the idols which men had set up in the groves, by the branches, in sight and out of sight and made of copper, were worshipped as persistently as the believers of Moloch or Baal ever worshipped their idols. The ministers of the gospel fled away to other places, the teachers in the public schools, could not withstand the difficulties that surrounded them, and they asked for other stations. But at last, a school house was built, and a teacher found who undertook the almost thankless task, and counselled by the writer of this article, he presented his work, overcome obstacles that other teachers would not face. He found that the children were truthful, though wilful, wild and some cases quite profane. Young Paul Abbott, full of christian zeal, tact and ability, stood to his post, and in time, made "Ashley No 18," the banner school of the county, and received the beautiful flag presented by the Youth's Companion of Boston.

As no house in the vicinity could well hold the crowds, the Board of Education allowed a Union Sabbath school to be held in the school house. In a few months the sale of whiskey was stopped and several moonshiners who went up and down the road in front of the school house, on the Sabbath selling whiskey, were taken in charge by the government officials, and the business has almost entirely ceased. The eyes of these officials are on the men who still defy the laws of God and Man.

But, to the revival of religion. Good men and women, though poorly qualified, some of them for teaching, have kept up the Sabbath school until lately it was seen that the spirit of Almighty God was visiting the hearts of men, women and young people. Rev. J. E. Blackburn, a Baptist minister, belonging to the Dahlonga church, took charge of the religious work. He has been a successful worker in other parts of this section, and from the very start, the revival was full of interest. Great crowds assembled. The little school house was too small. The open air was sought where hundreds sat upon the ground. Many were converted. The Dahlonga Baptist church at a conference, adopted the usual course in such cases and authorized an "Arm of the church" to be established at that point with authority given to Rev. J. E. Blackburn to open the door of the church, baptize the converts, and receive them into the membership of the Dahlonga church; there to remain until this time arrives to form a new church, which will be done during the present fall.

A number of persons have recently joined the church and been baptized. I am glad that I have lived to see the great transformation of this people. God is claiming his own beautiful country once more and will hold it for time and eternity. Copper idols, and all other idols worshipped by our people must be destroyed.

A level-headed exchange says: "Learn this one thing; learn it early in life and learn it well, that the man who does not believe as you do is not always a fool. The fact that you hold views not in accord with your neighbor is not proof positive that you are right and he is wrong, nor is it any evidence that your neighbor is insincere."

When a man tells you he will do anything in the world for you he means about as much as a candidate does when he says his ambition is only to save his countrymen.

FREE TO EVERY CHILD
who is a citizen of the town. People who have little children to be educated cannot find a better location. Rents are cheap and the cost of living moderate. Why not move here to give your children a nine months school term instead of having a short term of two or three months as you now have? The children who complete the course in the graded school enter college here without additional examination. If cheap living, low rates and a nine months school absolutely free for your children is not an attractive proposition, where will you find one?
